Anthem (from the Childhood of Jesus) - Hector Berlioz

Now are the weary pilgrims led to a place where pleasant grass is growing, with palm trees waving overhead, while from the rock a stream is flowing.

Said Saint Joseph: Here will we rest, here amid the trees is water shining, our weary limbs reclining, here will we rest.

The Holy Child was sleeping, the Mother ever keeping watch o'er his slumber, softly said: Ah, see how God hath spread this lovely flowery bed to rest my darling Child, even here in deserts wild.

In the shade they rest together, beneath the trees the ass they tether, there lies the Child in slumber mild. On the holy pair quiet sleep now is stealing with visions of happier days, while the Angels of heaven sing their anthems of praise, round the Blessed Babe lowly kneeling: Alleluia!

From thee, illustrious teacher, Paul,
Sounds forth the Church's trumpet call
Throughout the world, from pole to pole,
Like tempest's blasts, like thunder's roll.

Hearts with thy stirring peal awake,
With truth bedew, and fertile make!
So shall the rain from heaven distil,
Our parched souls with grace to fill.

O bliss of Paul, beyond all thought!
To Paradise, yet living, caught;
He hears the heavenly mysteries there,
Which mortal tongue may not declare.

The Word's blest seed around he flings,
And straight a mighty harvest springs;
And fruits of holy deeds supply
God's everlasting granary.

The lamp his holy lore displays
Hath filled the world with glorious rays:
And doubt and error are o'erthrown,
That truth may reign, and reign alone.

Long as unending ages run,
To God the Father laud be done;
To God the Son our equal praise,
And God the Holy Ghost we raise. Amen.

Anthem - - - - J. S. Bach

Jesu, joy of man's desiring,
Holy Wisdom, Love most bright;
Drawn be Thee, our souls aspiring,
Soar to uncreated light.
Word of God, our flesh that fashioned,
With the fire of life impassioned,
Striving still to Truth unknown,

Monday is the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. There will be a third Mass at 9.30.

In compiling the list of the names of children for St. Mark's Font Roll, we are eager that no little one of pre-school or kindergarten age belonging to the Parish should be left out. Will you kindly send to the Rector the names of any such children who have been (or should be) baptized?

Due to difficulties in transportation this year a need for "correspondence courses" in Religious Education has been created. Arrangements for such instruction of children of grade and high school ages, or of adults, may be made with the Rector.

The attention of the Clergy and People of the Diocese of Pennsylvania is called to a Special Service in Commemoration of the Life and Ministry of Phillips Brooks, which will be held in Holy Trinity Church this afternoon at 4.30 P. M.

Hymn - - - - Mode VIII

The Father's sole-begotten Son
Was born, the Virgin's Child, on earth;
His Cross for us adoption won,
The life and grace of second birth.

Redeemer, come with power benign,
Dwell in the souls that look for thee;
O let thy light within us shine
That we may thy salvation see.

Forth from the height of heav'n He came,
In form of man with man abode;
Redeemed his world from death and shame,
The joys of endless life bestowed.

Thou camest, Lord, and well we know
That thou wilt likewise come again;
Thy kingdom shield from every foe,
Thy honour and thy rule maintain.

Eternal glory, Lord, to thee,
Whom, now revealed, our hearts adore;
To God the Father glory be,
And Holy Spirit evermore. Amen.

Anthem - - - - Tschaikowski

Blessed angel spirits offer praise undying, ever crying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth.

Saints and Martyrs praise thy Name, Trinity life-giving, Earth-borne sorrow leaving before thy throne, ever crying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth!

Father Omnipotent, mighty in glory; Christ thy Son, our Saviour, who died that we might live; Holy Spirit, mystic dove, dwelling with us evermore, We praise thee, Blessed Trinity.

With the Angels' sacred hymn, all thy might proclaiming, With the mystic Cherubim, in songs of praise we join: Holy, Holy, Holy, Join we all in songs of praise forever; Hallelujah, Lord God of Sabaoth.

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - William Byrd, 1543-1623

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Confirmation Instruction—By appointment.

Those who desire to be Confirmed at Easter Even should lose no time in giving their names to the Rector or to Sister Leila.

In compiling the list of the names of children for St. Mark's Font Roll, we are eager that no little one of pre-school or kindergarten age belonging to the Parish should be left out. Will you kindly send to the Rector the names of any such children who have been (or should be) baptized?

Due to difficulties in transportation this year a need for "correspondence courses" in Religious Education has been created. Arrangements for such instruction of children of grade and high school ages, or of adults, may be made with the Rector.

Tuesday will be the Feast of the Purification. There will be a third Mass at 9.30.

The Corporate Communion of the Woman's Auxiliary will be made today at 8 A. M.

The regular monthly meeting of the Auxiliary will be held in the Parish Building on Thursday afternoon, February 4th, at 2.30 P. M.

The Evening Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary will meet on Monday evening, February 1st, in the Parish Parlor. Father Pottle will address the meeting. All members of the congregation are invited to attend.

The Church Periodical Club treasury and book shelves are both empty. Books and magazines (not too old) may be left at the Parish House. Checks may be sent to Mrs. Theodore F. Jenkins, 1830 Rittenhouse Square. Will anyone give a subscription to, or forward copies of, the Holy Cross Magazine to a Priest?

There will be a Quiet Day at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue, on Washington's Birthday, Monday, February 22nd, starting with Mass at 8.30 A. M. and closing at 4 P. M. O blest Creator of the light,
Who mak'st the day with radiance bright
And o'er the forming world didst call
The light from chaos first of all;

Whose wisdom joined in meet array
The morn and eve and named them Day;
Night comes with all its darkling fears,
Regard thy people's prayers and tears.

Lest sunk in sin and whelm'd with strife
They lose the gift of endless life;
While thinking but the thoughts of time
They weave new chains of woe and crime.

But grant them grace that they may strain
The heavenly gate and prize to gain:
Each harmful lure aside to cast,
And purge away each error past.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost, and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

Motet - - - - Bortniansky

How great in Sion Thou art praised,
No mortal tongue, O Lord, can tell.
Above the sky thy throne is raised,
All of earth's creatures laud thee well.
O Lord; thy greatness everywhere reigneth,
All things thy heavenly might ordaineth.

The Lamb of Gold upon thine Altar
Sheweth to us thine effigy;
We sing to thee with lyre and psalter,
Incense and myrrh we bring to thee;
Borne in the clouds from censers burning
Riseth to thee our heart's deep yearning.

O God, unto thy heavenly dwelling
Send we our voices e'er anew!
Our heart's deep yearning ever telling
Flow forth our tears like morning dew;
An Altar in our hearts we raise thee,
Ever, O Lord, we sing and praise thee!

Hymn 4 — Christ, Whose glory fills the skies
Werner's Choralbuch, 1815

Introit - - - - - Tone V

The sorrows of death came about me; the pains of hell gat hold upon me: and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my defense and my Saviour. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - Altissimus, Mode V

Gradual - - - - Tone III

Thou art a refuge in due time of trouble; they that know thee will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, never failest them that seek thee. V. For the poor shall not alway be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever: Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

Tract - - - - - Tone VIII

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. O let thine ears consider well: the prayers of thy servant. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it. For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared, O Lord.

Hymn 113 — Fight the good fight — Wm. Boyd, 1864

Credo III - - - Mode V, de Angelis

Offertory - - - - Tone VIII

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy Name, O Most Highest.

Hymn 255 — O worship the King, all glorious above
William Croft, 1708

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - C. Hylton Stewart

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Shew thy servant the light of thy countenance: and save me for thy mercies' sake. Let me not be confounded, O Lord: for I have called upon thee.

Motet - - - Anton Bruckner

Jesus is a gem of price.
Mine of never-failing treasure;
Jesus is a Paradise,
Shoreless sea of heavenly pleasure;
Jesus doth as cooling dew
Thirsty plain and mead renew.

Jesus is of songs the best,
Ear hath heard or tongue hath sounded;
Name it, and of heaven possest,
Thrills my soul with joy unbounded;
Jesus is my heart's delight,
Pride and glory, day and night.

Antiphon - - - - Mode IV

Like the olive branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis — Tone II with faux bourdon by Ludovico Viadana, 1564-1627

Hymn - - - - - Mode II

Creator of the world, to thee
An endless rest of joy belongs;
And heavenly choirs are ever free
To sing on high their festal songs.

But we are fallen creatures here,
Where pain and sorrow daily come:
And how can we, in exile drear,
Sing out, as they, sweet songs of home?

O Father, who dost promise still
That they who mourn shall blessed be;
Grant us to weep for deeds of ill
That banish us so long from thee.

But, while we weep, grant faith to rest
In hope upon thy loving care;
Till thou restore us, with the blest,
Their songs of praise in heaven to share.

Motet - - - - Zingarelli

Go not far from me, O God; cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

O let my mouth be filled with thy praise, that I may sing thy glory and honour all the day long.

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Orlando Gibbons, Song 34

O Saving Victim, opening wide

Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,

Hymn 116 — Oft in danger, oft in woe — Gauntlett, 1852

Introit - - - - Tone I

Arise, O Lord, wherefore sleepest thou? awaken, and cast us not away for ever: wherefore hidest thou thy countenance, and forgettest our adversity and misery? our belly cleaveth unto the ground; arise and save us, O Lord, our helper and deliverer.

Ps. O God, we have heard with our ears: our fathers have told us. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in honor of St. Lawrence) — Oreste Ravanello

Gradual - - - - Tone III

Let the nations know that thou, whose Name is Jehovah: art only the Most Highest over all the earth. V. O my God, make them like unto a wheel: and as the stubble before the wind.

Tract - - - - - Tone VIII

Thou hast moved the land, O Lord, and divided it: heal the sores thereof for it shaketh. That they may triumph because of the truth: that thy beloved may be delivered.

Credo III - - - Mode V, de Angelis

Offertory - - - - Tone IV

Motet - - - J. H. Ahle, 1625-1673

Jesus, joyaunce of my heart,
Blessed Jesu:
Bliss unto my soul thou art,
Holy Jesu:
Sure defence from Satan's dart,
Sweetest Jesu,
Jesu, sweetest Jesu.

Nought is lovelier than thou,
Dearest Jesu:
None is friendlier than thou,
Gentlest Jesu:
Nor is any sweet as thou,
Sweetest Jesu,
Jesu, sweetest Jesu.

Antiphon - - - - Mode IV

Like the olive branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Psalm 147 - - - Tone VIII-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis — Tone II with faux bourdon by Ludovico Viadana, 1564-1627

Hymn - - - - Mode IV

O God, the joy of heaven above,
Thou didst not need thy creatures' love
When from thy secret place was said
The Word that earth's foundations laid.

Thou spakest; worlds began to be,
They stand before thy majesty;
And all to their Creator raise
A wondrous harmony of praise.

But ere, O Lord, this lovely earth
From thy creative will had birth,
Thou in thy counsels didst unfold
Another world of fairer mould.

That world doth our Redeemer frame
And build upon his mighty Name;
His Church shall last in heaven for aye,
Till time itself hath passed away. Amen.

Anthem - - - - Edward Elgar

Doubt not thy Father's care!
For every grief He finds relief,
And answers every prayer.
Night comes: the sun is lost;
Night comes: He doth provide
In the heavens wide
The gleam of a starry host.

Night comes: the soul is dark;
All joy is dead, all gladness fled,
And life has missed its mark.
Then Thou—the wounded soul,
In that sad hour, with healing power,
Dost touch, and makest whole.

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Orlando Gibbons, Song 34

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Introit - - - - Tone VIII

He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him: I will deliver him and bring him to honour; with length of days will I satisfy him.

Ps. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - Merbecke

Gradual - - - - Tone II

God shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. V. They shall bear thee in their hands: lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Tract - - - - Tone VIII

Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say unto the Lord, thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night. Nor for the arrow that flieth by day, for the pestilence that walketh in darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee. For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt go upon the lion and the adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Credo - - - - Merbecke

Offertory - - - - Tone VIII

The Lord shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Hymn - - - Rouen Church Melody

The fast, as taught by holy lore,
We keep in solemn course once more:
The fast to all men known and bound
In forty days of yearly round.

The laws and seers that were of old
In divers ways this Lent foretold,
Which Christ, all seasons' King and guide
In after ages sanctified.

More sparing therefore let us make
The words we speak, the food we take,
Our sleep and mirth, and closer barred
Be every sense in holy guard.

In prayer together let us fall,
And cry for mercy, one and all,
And weep before the Judge's feet
And his avenging wrath entreat.

Forgive the sin that we have wrought,
Increase the good that we have sought;
That we, at length, our wanderings o'er,
May please thee here and evermore.

We pray thee, Holy Trinity,
One God, unchanging Unity;
That we, from this our abstinence,
May reap the fruits of penitence. Amen.

Anthem - - - - Thomas Attwood

Turn thy face from my sins, and put out all my misdeeds; make me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Orlando Gibbons, Song 34

Call to remembrance thy tender compassion and mercy, O Lord, and thy loving kindnesses toward us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us, O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble.

Tract - - - - Tone II

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever. Who can express the noble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise? Hymn - - - M. Luther (1483-1546)

The glory of these forty days
We celebrate with songs of praise;
For Christ, by whom all things were made,
Himself has fasted and has prayed.

So Daniel trained his mystic sight,
Delivered from the lions' might;
And John, the Bridegroom's friend became
The herald of Messiah's name.

Alone and fasting Moses saw
The loving God who gave the Law;
And to Elijah, fasting, came
The steed and chariots of flame.

Then grant us, Lord, like them to be Full oft in fast and prayer with thee;
Our spirits strengthen with thy grace
And give us joy to see thy face.

Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer addrest;
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord. Amen.

Anthem - - - - John Goss

Hymn 237 When all thy mercies, O my God Thomas Tallis, 1567

Introit - - - - Tone VII

Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net: look thou upon me, and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate, afflicted and in misery.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee; O let me not be confounded. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevissima) - Claudio Casciolini

Gradual - - - - Tone III

Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy sight. V. While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

Tract - - - - Tone VIII

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens. Behold, even as the eyes of servants: look unto the hand of their masters. And as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of their mistress: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us. Have mercy upon us, O Lord: have mercy upon us.

Hymn 124 Lord, when we bend before thy throne Christopher Tye, 1553

Credo - - - - Merbecke

Offertory - - - - Tone IV

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart; his judgments also are sweeter than honey and the honeycomb: moreover by them is thy servant taught.

Hymn 234 My God, I love thee Cologne, 1741

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Casciolini

Communio - - - - Tone I

The sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praising thee.

Ave Verum - - - Josquin des Pres

Hail, true Body, born of Mary,
Spotless Virgin's virgin birth;
Thou who truly hangedst weary
On the Cross for sons of earth.

Thou whose sacred Side was riven
Whence the Water flowed and Blood,
O may'st thou, dear Lord, be given
At death's hour to be our Food.

Antiphon - - - - Mode IV

Like the olive branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Hymn - - Thomas Campion, 1575-1619

Now is the healing time decreed
For sins of heart, of word or deed,
When we in humble fear record
The wrong that we have done the Lord;

Therefore with fasting and with prayer,
Our secret sorrow we declare;
With all good striving seek his face,
And lowly hearted plead for grace.

Who, alway merciful and good,
Has borne so long our wayward mood,
Nor cut us off unsparingly
In our so great iniquity.

Cleanse us, O Lord, from every stain,
Help us the meed of praise to gain,
Till with the Angels linked in love
Joyful we tread thy courts above.

Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer addrest,
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord. Amen.

Anthem - - - - J. S. Bach

I would beside my Lord be watching, That evil draw me not astray;
For my sake He to die will undertake; His sorrow joy for me secureth.
The griefs that He for us endureth, How bitter, yet how sweet are they.

John H. Merscher, Tenor

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Orlando Gibbons, Song 34

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Introit - - - - Tone V

Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all ye that delight in her: exult and sing for joy with her, all ye that in sadness mourn for her; that ye may suck and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolation.

Ps. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis) - Everett Titcomb

V. Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Tract - - - - Tone VIII

O Christ, who art the Light and Day,
Thou drivest darksome night away!
We know thee as the Light of Light,
Illuminating mortal sight.

Yea, our Defender, be thou nigh
To bid the powers of darkness fly;
Keep us from sin, and guide for good
Thy servants purchased by thy Blood.

All-holy Lord, we pray to thee,
Keep us tonight from danger free;
Grant us, dear Lord, in thee to rest,
So be our sleep in quiet blest.

Remember us, dear Lord, we pray,
While in this mortal flesh we stay;
'Tis thou who dost the soul defend—
Be present with us to the end.

And while the eyes soft slumber take,
Still be the heart to thee awake;
Thy servants resting in thy love.

Blest Three in One and One in Three,
Almighty God, we pray to thee
That thou wouldst now vouchsafe to bless
Our fast with fruits of righteousness.
Amen.

Arioso (St. John Passion) - - J. S. Bach

Consider, O my soul, with fearful joy consider, with bitter anguish in thy heart afflicted, thy highest good is Jesus' sorrow. For thee, from the thorns that pierce him, what heavenly flowers spring, thou canst the sweetest fruit from his wormwood gather, then look for evermore to him.

Chorale: Within our inmost being, thy Name and Cross alone,
The light of all our seeing, prevailing influence own.
O breathe this comfort o'er us, when low in grief we lie,
That Thou, Lord Jesus, for us, hast given thyself to die.

Many a time have they fought against me from my youth up, may Israel now say: yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. Introit - - - - Tone VIII

Be not thou far from us, O Lord; thou art my succour; haste thee to help me. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

Ps. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

Kyrie Eleison - - Altissimus, Mode V

Gradual - - - - Tone IV

Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well-nigh slipt: and why? I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

Tract - - - - Tone VIII

My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health and from the words of my complaint.

O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou Worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worm and no man: the very scorn of men and the outcast of his people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying. He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

Credo - - - Harold Darke, 1926

Offertory - - - - Tone VIII

Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me. They gave me gall to eat: and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Response to the appeal for flowers for the Altar of Repose on Maundy Thursday was most beautiful and generous. Those who were privileged to arrange the flowers take this opportunity to acknowledge them.

The Evening Auxiliary has been filling Red Cross kits for soldiers going overseas. The cost of equipping each kit is $1.50 and the Auxiliary would be very grateful for any assistance in supplying this great need of the Red Cross. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Albert Haas, 7537 E. Tulpehocken Street, or left with Mrs. McFaul at the office.

Sequence - - - - Mode I

Christians, to the Paschal Victim, offer your thankful praises. A Lamb the sheep redeemeth; Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father. Death and Life have contended in that combat stupendous; the Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring: 'The Tomb of Christ who is living, the glory of Jesu's resurrection; bright Angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting, Yea, Christ, my hope is arisen: to Galilee he goes before you.'

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining: have mercy, Victor King, ever reigning. Amen. Alleluia.

Credo - - - - Rheinberger

Offertory - - - - Tone VIII

The earth trembled and was still: when God arose to judgment. Alleluia.

Anthem - - - Beethoven, 1770-1827

Hallelujah! Hallelujah unto God's Almighty Son. Praise the Lord, ye bright angelic choirs, in holy songs of joy. Man, proclaim his grace and glory. Praise the Lord in songs of joy.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - Rheinberger

Communio - - - - Tone VI

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, alleluia: therefore let us keep the Feast with the unleavened Bread of sincerity and truth, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - Rheinberger

Antiphon - - - - Mode V

To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name, alleluia.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord.

Hymn - - Jeremiah Clark, 1670-1707

The Saint who first found grace to pen
The Life which was the Life of men,
And shed abroad the Gospel's ray,
His fame we celebrate today.

Lo, drawn by Pentecostal fire,
His heart conceived its great desire,
When pure of mind, inspired, he heard
And with his hand set forth the Word.

Then, clearly writ, the Godhead shone
Serene and fair to look upon;
And thro' that record still comes power
To lighten souls in death's dark hour.

O holy mind, for wisdom fit
Wherein that Life of lives stood writ,
May we through minds of like accord
Show forth the pattern of our Lord.

And so may all whose minds are dark
Be led to truth by good Saint Mark,
And after this our earthly strife
Stand written in the Book of Life.

Praise God who made the world so fair,
And sent his Son our Saviour there,
And by his Holy Spirit wist
To teach the first Evangelist. Amen.

Anthem Melody by N. Herman, 1560, arr. by Henry G. Ley

Lo, round the Throne a glorious band,
The Saints in countless myriads stand,
Of every Tongue redeemed of God,
Arrayed in garments washed in blood,
Hallelujah.

They see their Saviour face to face,
And sing the triumphs of his grace;
Him day and night they ceaseless praise,
To Him the loud thanksgiving raise:
Hallelujah.

Through tribulation great they came:
They bore the Cross, despised the shame:
From all their labours now they rest,
In God's eternal glory blest,
Hallelujah.

Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,
Through endless years to live and reign:
Thou hast redeemed us by thy Blood,
And made us kings and priests to God,
Hallelujah.

O may we tread the sacred road
That Saints and holy Martyrs trod:
Wage to the end the glorious strife,
And win, like them, a crown of life.
Hallelujah. Amen.

He whose presence all things fills;

Of their Holy Writing
Stands the Church secure from ills.

Here those four rings golden,
Well may be beholden
Which the Ark of God upbore;
Christ, the good seed sowing

O blest Creator of the light,
Who mak'st the day with radiance bright
And o'er the forming world didst call
The light from chaos first of all;

Whose wisdom joined in meet array
The morn and eve and named them Day:
Night comes with all its darkling fears;
Regard thy people's prayers and tears.

Lest, sunk in sin, and whelm'd with strife
They lose the gift of endless life;
While thinking but the thoughts of time,
They weave new chains of woe and crime.

But grant them grace that they may strain
The heavenly gate and prize to gain:
Each harmful lure aside to cast,
And purge away each error past.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son:
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

Anthem - Samuel Sebastian Wesley, 1810-1876

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear.

Love one another with a pure heart fervently; see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Grenoble Church Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven, alleluia.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness, alleluia.

Hymn - - - Ebenezer Prout, 1887

Holy Father, in thy mercy,
Hear our anxious prayer,
Keep our loved ones, now far absent
'Neath thy care.

Jesus Saviour, let thy presence
Be their light and guide;
Keep, O keep them in their weakness
At thy side.

When in sorrow, when in danger,
When in loneliness,
In thy love look down and comfort
Their distress.

May the joy of thy salvation
Be their strength and stay;
May they love and may they praise thee
Day by day.

Holy Spirit, let thy teaching
Sanctify their life;
Send thy grace that they may conquer
In the strife.

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
God the One in Three;
Bless them, guide them, save them,
Keep them, Near to thee. Amen.

Anthem - - - Edward Elgar, 1896

Doubt not thy Father's care! For every grief he finds relief, and answers every prayer. Night comes: the sun is lost; Night comes: He doth provide in the heavens wide, the gleam of a starry host. Night comes: the soul is dark; All joy is dead, all gladness fled, and life has missed its mark. Then, Thou, the wounded soul in that sad hour, with healing power, dost touch and makest whole.

Anthem - - R. Vaughan-Williams, 1923

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us; such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power. Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge. Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore.

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Grenoble Church Melody

Come Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

See how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys;
Our souls, how heavily they go,
To reach eternal joys.

In vain we tune our lifeless songs,
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Grenoble Church Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven, alleluia.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness, alleluia.

Anthem (St. Patrick's Prayer) arranged by Charles Burke

I bind unto myself this day
The glory of the Trinity;
I humbly praise the awful Name,
The Three in One and One in Three.

Christ be near me, Christ within me,
Christ be ever before me:
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ be with me this day.

Christ in safety, Christ in danger
Christ beside each friend and stranger;
Christ consoling all that love me,
Christ be with me this day.

I bind unto myself this day
The stable earth, the deep salt sea;
The sweet pale moon, the sun's bright ray,
The whirling winds, the lightning free.

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Grenoble Church Melody

O blest Creator of the light,
Who mak'st the day with radiance bright
And o'er the forming world didst call
The light from chaos first of all;

Lest sunk in sin, and whelm'd with strife
They lose the gift of endless life;
While thinking but the thoughts of time,
They weave new chains of woe and crime.

Whose wisdom joined in meet array
The morn and eve and named them Day:
Night comes with all its darkling fears;
Regard thy people's prayers and tears.

But grant them grace that they may strain
The heavenly gate and prize to gain:
Each harmful lure aside to cast,
And purge away each error past.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

Anthem - - - - Edward Elgar

Light of the World, we know thy praise the Angels and Archangels raise, and all the hosts of heaven; more worthily than our faint hymns, whose jarring sound that glory dims, which God to thee has given.

But thou didst not disdain to take our low estate, or e'en to make the tomb thy resting place; so thou might bring into our night the dawn of thine eternal Light to shine upon our face.

Nor death, nor hell, nor sin is Lord, but thou, O Son of God; thy Word is now our sovereign law, therefore we thank thee, and we pray thy Light may shine unto the Perfect Day on us for evermore.

The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of the eternal day.

Gradual - - - - - - I

Blessed are the people whose God is the Lord: and blessed are the folk that he has chosen to him to be his inheritance. V. By the Word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

Anthem - - - - - J. S. Bach

God, my Shepherd, walks beside me,
And I know his way is best;
Where his tender care doth guide me,
Shall no evil e'er betide me,
In his love I calmly rest.

The Lord my Guide vouchsafes to be,
To Him full trust I render;
The Lord, my Shepherd, carries me
To pastures fair and tender:
He leads me on by waters still,
My soul with comfort he doth fill,
My Strength and sure Defender.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - IV, VIII

Communio - - - - - - II

Promise unto the Lord your God, and keep it, all ye that are round about him: bring presents unto him that ought to be feared. He shall refrain the spirit of princes: and he is wonderful among the kings of the earth.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - I

Antiphon - - - - - - V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Psalm 103 - - - - - V-3

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - Henry Coleman in F

Hymn - - - - - H. W. Hawke

Praise, the true heart's offer,
Let our voices proffer
And our thanks to Christ resound
For the Faith's four Preachers
And unshaken Teachers,
Whom his grace hath made renowned.

Here those four rings golden
Well may be beholden
Which the Ark of God upbore;
Christ, the good seed sowing
And the fruit bestowing
In the doctrine of the Four.

Christ is Head and Ending
Of their aim and telling,
He whose presence all things fills;
By the blest inditing
Of their Holy Writing
Stands the Church secure from ills.

At their supplication,
Grant us, Lord, salvation
From eternal death and woe;
By their Holy Teaching
Safe and happy reaching
Of celestial joys bestow. Amen.

Anthem - - - - Cesar Franck

Hallelujah! O Praise ye the Lord, Praise God for his greatness. Praise ye the Lord in the firmament of his power. Praise ye Him for his mighty acts. Praise ye Him according to his wondrous works.

Praise ye Him with the sound of the trumpet; Praise ye Him with the dance; Praise Him with the organ and stringed instruments; Praise ye Him upon the loud cymbals; Praise ye Him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath Praise the Lord. Hallelujah!

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Organ—Canzona in D minor - - J. S. Bach

We know thee as the Light of Light,
Illuminating mortal sight.

All-holy Lord, we pray to thee,
Keep us tonight from danger free;
Grant us, dear Lord, in thee to rest,
So be our sleep in quiet blest.

And while the eyes soft slumber take,
Still be the heart to thee awake;
Thy servants resting in thy love.

Yea, our Defender, be thou nigh
To bid the powers of darkness fly;
Keep us from sin, and guide for good
Thy servants purchased by thy Blood.

Remember us, dear Lord, we pray,
While in this mortal flesh we stay:
'Tis thou who dost the soul defend—
Be present with us to the end.

All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, Eternal Son, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

Hear our anxious prayer,

Jesus Saviour, let thy presence
Be their light and guide;
Keep, O keep them in their weakness
At thy side.

When in sorrow, when in danger,
When in loneliness,
In thy love look down and comfort
Their distress.

May the joy of thy salvation
Be their strength and stay;
May they love and may they praise thee
Day by day.

Holy Spirit, let thy teaching
Sanctify their life;
Send thy grace that they may conquer
In the strife

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
God the One in Three;
Bless them, guide them, save them,
Keep them, Near to thee. Amen.

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who his own Self bare our sins in his own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Hymn in Procession, 295 For All the Saints Vaughan-Williams

Introit - - - - - - I

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, and celebrate this festival in honour of all the Saints: over whose solemn feast the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - Rheinberger in A

Gradual - - - - - - I

O fear the Lord, ye that are his Saints: for they that fear him lack nothing.
V. They who seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good.

Alleluia - - - - - - V

Come unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy-laden: and I will give you rest. Alleluia.

Sequence - - - - - - I

Spouse of Christ, in arms contending
O'er each clime beneath the sun,
Blend with prayers for help ascending
Notes of praise for triumphs won.

As the Church today rejoices
All her Saints to join on high,
So from earth let all our voices
Rise in solemn harmony.

In your heavenly habitations,
In your blessed home on high,
Hear, ye Saints, our aspirations,
As to God we lift our cry.

Ever praising, ever praying,
Help ye thus your brethren here,
That the will of God obeying
We in peace may persevere.

Credo - - - - - Rheinberger

Offertory - - - - - - I

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God: and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: but they are in peace, alleluia.

Anthem - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for eve Amen.

And now this holy day
Is drawing to its end,
Once more to thee, O Lord,
Our thanks and prayers we send.

Yet, ere we go to rest,
Father, to thee we pray,
Forgive the sins that stain
E'en this thy holy day.

We thank thee for this rest
From earthly care and strife;
We thank thee for this help
To higher, holier life.

Through Jesus let the past
Be blotted from thy sight,
And let us all now sleep,
At peace with thee this night.

We thank thee for thy house,
It is thy palace-gate
Where thou, upon the throne
Of mercy, still dost wait.

To God the Father, Son,
And Spirit, glory be,
From all in earth and heaven,
Through all eternity. Amen.

Anthem - - - Ralph Vaughan-Williams

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge.

Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore.

Hymn 56 — Thy kingdom come — Day's Psalter, 1562

Introit - - - - - VIII

Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee; O let me not be confounded: neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Ps. Shew me thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - Casciolini

Gradual - - - - - I

All they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed, O Lord: shew me thy ways, O Lord, and teach me thy paths.

Alleluia - - - - - VIII

Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation. Alleluia.

Sequence - - - - VII

Saviour Eternal! Health and Life of the world unfailing. Light Everlasting! And in verity our redemption.

Grieving that the ages of men must perish through the tempter's subtlety; Still in heaven abiding thou camest earthward of thine own great clemency;

Then freely and graciously deigning to assume humanity, To lost ones and perishing gavest thou thy free deliverance, filling all the world with joy.

O Christ, our souls and bodies cleanse by thy perfect sacrifice, That we, as temples pure and bright, fit for thine abode may be.

By thy former Advent justify, By thy second grant us liberty; That, when in the might of glory thou descendest, Judge of all, We, in raiment undefiled, bright may shine and ever follow, Lord, thy footsteps blest, where'er they lead us.

Credo III - - - V, de Angelis

Offertory - - - - - II

Hymn - - - - IV

Creator of the stars of night,
Thy people's everlasting light;
Jesu, Redeemer, save us all,
And hear thy servants when they call.

Thou, grieving that the ancient curse
Should doom to death a universe,
Hast found the medicine, full of grace
To save and heal a ruined race.

Thou cam'st, the Bridegroom of the Bride;
As drew the world to evening-tide;
Proceeding from a virgin shrine,
The spotless Victim all-divine.

At whose dread name, majestic now,
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow
And things celestial thee shall own
And things terrestrial, Lord, alone.

O thou whose coming is with dread
To judge and doom the quick and dead,
Preserve us, while we dwell below,
From every insult of the foe.

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One;
Laud, honor, might and glory be
From age to age eternally. Amen.

Anthem - - - - Gustav Holst

Turn back, O Man, forswear thy foolish ways.
Old now is earth, and none may count her days,
Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame,
Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim
'Turn back, O Man, forswear thy foolish ways.'

Earth might be fair, and all men glad and wise,
Age after age their tragic empires rise,
Built while they dream, and in that dreaming weep,
Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep
Earth might be fair, and all men glad and wise.

Earth shall be fair, and all her people one,
Nor till that hour shall God's whole work be done.
Now, even now, once more from earth to sky
Peals forth in joy man's old undaunted cry
'Earth shall be fair, and all her people one!'

O Word, that goest forth on high,
From God's own depths eternally;
Who in these latter days art born
For succour to a world forlorn.

Our hearts enlighten from above,
And kindle with the fire of love;
That we, who hear the call today,
At length may cast our sins away.

And when as Judge thou drawest nigh;
The secrets of all hearts to try;
When vengeance falls on hidden sin,
And Saints their promised reign begin;

O let us not for evil past,
Be driven from thy face at last;
But with the Saints in glory be
To endless ages pure and free.

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee
Whose Advent doth thy people free;
Whom with the Father we adore,
And Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee. He never will suffer the righteous to fall: He is at thy right hand. Thy mercy, Lord, is great, and far above the heavens. Let none be made ashamed that wait upon Thee.

Greeting thee, our heavenly King.

Come, Lord Jesus, take thy rest,
In the convert sinner's breast;
Make the quickened heart thy throne,
Son of God, the Virgin's Son.

With a loyal kiss of love,
We receive thee from above,
With a solemn vow to pay
True allegiance to thy sway.

Welcome to this vale of tears,
Ripeness of the perfect years,
Born as man with man to dwell,
Come, our true Emmanuel.

God in man, Incarnate God,
Sinless child of flesh and blood,
Man in God, thy brethren we,
Raise us up to God in thee. Amen.

Anthem - - - - J. S. Bach

Jesu, joy of man's desiring,
Holy Wisdom, Love most bright,
Drawn by thee, our souls aspiring
Soar to uncreated light.
Word of God our flesh that fashioned,
With the fire of life impassioned,
Striving still to Truth unknown,
Soaring, dying round thy throne.

Through the way where Hope is guiding,
Hark what peaceful music rings,
Where the flock in thee confiding,
Drink of joy from deathless springs.
Theirs is beauty's fairest pleasure,
Theirs is wisdom's holiest treasure,
Thou dost ever lead thine own,
In the love of joys unknown.

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Abbe Duguet, c. 1767

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge.

Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis II with polyphony by Ludovico Viadana

Hymn - - - - - - II

When shades of night around us close,
And weary limbs in sleep repose,
The faithful soul awake may be,
And yearning sigh, O Lord, to Thee.

O come, Redeemer, come and free
Thine own from their iniquity;
The gates of heaven again unfold
Which Adam's trespass closed of old.

O Thou, for whom the nations long,
O Word of God, thou Saviour strong,
Turn unto us thy pitying eyes,
And bid at length the fallen rise.

All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee
Whose Advent doth thy people free,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost forevermore. Amen.

Motet - - - - Johannes Brahms

A White Dove flew from heaven
Down to the waiting earth.
It was the Lord's fair Angel
Who prophesied Christ's birth
'Hail, Mary Maid'
Its message sweet and clear,
Most blest art thou of women
And unto God most dear.
Lord have mercy on us!

The gates of heaven shall open,
The Lord of love shall come,
Jesus our blest Redeemer,
To make with men his home;
The promised Babe
Is Christ the eternal Lord,
By all the hosts angelic,
From age to age adored,
Lord have mercy on us!

And when our lives are ending,
The shadows closing fast,
Our hearts to thee for solace
Will turn, Lord, at the last;
From deep distress
Our prayer to thee shall rise,
In mercy, Lord, receive us,
In thy blest Paradise.
Lord have mercy on us!

The new Hymnal of the Church is being used for the first time this Sunday. The music is included in the congregational edition, and it is hoped that the singing will be helped thereby. The purpose of Hymns is to enhance the meaning of the Services; they are chosen with this in mind. The understanding of the words is the essential element, and the vocal participation of the congregation important.

Hymn 153 Christ, whose glory fills the skies Werner, 1815

Introit - - - - - - V

The sorrows of death came about me; the pains of hell gat hold upon me; and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my defence and my Saviour. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sancti Josephi Calasantii) Ravanello

The Collect and Epistle - Book of Common Prayer, page 118

Gradual - - - - - - III

Thou art a refuge in due time of trouble; they that know thee will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, never failest them that seek thee. V. For the poor shall not alway be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever: Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

Tract - - - - - - VIII

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. O let thine ears consider well: the prayers of thy servant. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it. For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared, O Lord.

Hymn 560 Fight the good fight William Boyd, 1864

The Holy Gospel Book of Common Prayer, page 119

Credo I (Hymnal, 720) - - - - IV

Offertory - - - - - - VIII

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy Name, O Most Highest.

Anthem - - - - Josef Haydn

Distracted with care and anguish,
When hearts despairing languish,
Madly they seek for comfort
Where it doth ne'er abide.

For us no rest remaineth,
If earth our love retaineth,
And heaven we cast aside.

Relief he only gaineth,
And peace at last attaineth,
Whom God vouchsafes to guide.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - Ravanello

Communio - - - - - - I

Shew thy servant the light of thy countenance: and save me for thy mercies' sake. Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee.

Hymn 195 Father, we thank thee who hast planted Bourgeois, 1543

Antiphon - - - - - - III

I will receive the Cup of Salvation, and I will offer the sacrifice of praise.

O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: that I may sing thy glory and honour all the day long.

O Salutaris Hostia, 209 - - VI, first tune

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

Hymn 55 Forty days and forty nights Martin Herbst 1676

Introit - - - - - VIII

He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him: I will deliver him and bring him to honour; with length of days will I satisfy him.

Ps. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Glory be.

Gradual - - - - - II

God shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. V. They shall bear thee in their hands: lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Tract - - - - - VIII

Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say unto the Lord, thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night. Nor for the arrow that flieth by day, for the pestilence that walketh in darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee. For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him; I will set him up, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Call to remembrance thy tender compassion and mercy, O Lord, and thy loving kindnesses toward us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us, O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble.

Anthem - - - Coleridge-Taylor, 1899

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept, when we remembered thee, O Sion.

As for our harps, we hanged them up upon the trees that are therein. For they that led us away captive required of us a song, and melody, in our heaviness.

Sing us one of the songs of Sion! How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; yea, if I prefer not Jerusalem in my mirth.

Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Jerusalem, how they said, Down with it, even to the ground.

O daughter of Babylon, wasted with misery, yea, happy shall he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us. Blessed shall he be that taketh thy children, and throweth them against the stones.

O Salutaris Hostia, 209 - - VI, first tune

O Saving Victim, opening wide

Notices

The goal of the 1944 Red Cross War Fund for the Southeastern Chapter is $6,543,000., the largest ever sought by the Red Cross. Eighty-five percent will be used to provide humanitarian services for the men in the armed services. These are absolutely essential to the successful conduct of the war and it is a privilege for us at home to participate in this campaign so that our Red Cross can go with our boys to all fighting fronts. The Red Cross is their one touch of home, and its services of mercy and morale-building mean the difference between mere existence and bearable living for our men wherever they are fighting.

The Red Cross appeal is one which merits the generous support of every American.

Hymn 297 When all thy mercies, O my God
Ravenscroft's Psalter, 1621

Introit - - - - - VII

Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net: look thou upon me, and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate, afflicted, and in misery.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee; O let me not be confounded. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sancto Albano) Healey Willan, 1929

The Collect and Epistle - Book of Common Prayer, page 128

Gradual - - - - - III

Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy sight. V. While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

Tract - - - - - VIII

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens. Behold, even as the eyes of servants: look unto the hand of their masters. And as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of their mistress: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God; until he have mercy upon us. Have mercy upon us, O Lord: have mercy upon us.

Hymn 413 Lord, as to thy dear Cross we flee Cologne, 1741

The Holy Gospel Book of Common Prayer, page 129

Credo I (Hymnal 720) - - - IV

Sermon - The Rev. Wm. H. Dunphy, Ph. D.

Offertory - - - - - IV

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart; his judgments also are sweeter than honey and the honeycomb: moreover by them is thy servant taught.

Hymn 190 Let thy Blood in mercy poured Johann Crueger, 1653

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Willan

Communio - - - - - I

The sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of Hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praising thee.

Ave Verum - - - Edward Elgar, 1902

Jesu, Word of God Incarnate,
Of the Virgin Mary born,
On the Cross thy Sacred Body
For us men with nails was torn.
Cleanse us, by the Blood and Water
Streaming from thy pierced Side;
Feed us with thy Body broken,
Now, and in death's agony.
O Jesu, hear us, Son of Mary!

Antiphon - - - - - - I

I am the Living Bread, which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Anthem - - - Philip James, 1916

I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient time,
And now, as then, thy mercies hold
Their hope of grace divine.

I have remembered my song at night,
Communing with my heart,
And know thy love is still my right,
Nor ever will depart.

Thy voice was in the thunder,
The waters were afraid;
Yet in my day of trouble
I called on thee for aid!

Who is so great a God as the Lord!
His law shall rule us aye.
He answers our each prayer outpoured,
Our guidance and our stay. Amen.

O Salutaris Hostia, 209 - - VI, first tune

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven,

Introit - - - - VIII

Be not far from us, O Lord; thou art my succour, haste thee to help me. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

Ps. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health and from the words of my complaint.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass dedicated to Fray Junipero Serra)
Richard Keys Biggs, 1937

The Collect and Epistle Book of Common Prayer, page 134

Gradual - - - - - IV

Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well-nigh slipt: and why? I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

Tract - - - - - VIII

My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health and from the words of my complaint. O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou Worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worm and no man: the very scorn of men and the outcast of his people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns. O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

The Holy Gospel - Book of Common Prayer, page 134

Credo - - - Richard Keys Biggs

Sermon - The Rev. Wm. H. Dunphy, Ph. D.

Offertory - - - - - VIII

Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me. They gave me gall to eat: and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Hymn 75 O Sacred Head, sore wounded Hassler, 1601

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Richard Keys Biggs

Communio - - - - - VIII

The earth trembled and was still: when God arose to judgment, alleluia.

Anthem - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently; see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

Lo, round the throne a glorious band
The Saints in countless myriads stand,
Of every tongue redeemed of God,
Arrayed in garments washed in blood,
Hallelujah!

They see their Saviour face to face,
And sing the triumphs of his grace:
Him day and night they ceaseless praise
To Him the loud thanksgiving raise:—
Hallelujah!

Through tribulation great they came:
They bore the Cross, despised the shame:
From all their labours now they rest,
In God's eternal glory blest,
Hallelujah!

Worthy the Lamb, for sinners slain,
Through endless years to live and reign:
Thou hast redeemed us by thy Blood,
And made us kings and priests to God,
Hallelujah!

O may we tread the sacred road
That Saints and Holy Martyrs trod:
Wage to the end the glorious strife,
And win, like them, a crown of life,
Hallelujah! Amen.

Sermon - The Rev. Wm. H. Dunphy, Ph. D.

Offertory - - - - - I

O be joyful in God, all ye lands; sing praises unto the honour of his Name: O come hither and hearken, all ye that fear God, and I will tell you what the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluia.

Anthem - - - - - - John Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous Light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - Piggott

Communio - - - - - VIII

When the Comforter, the Spirit of truth is come: he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness: and of judgment, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - Piggott

Antiphon - - - - - V

To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name, alleluia.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Anthem - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, See that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever, for evermore. Amen.

O Salutaris Hostia, 209 - - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven, alleluia,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness, alleluia.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness to spring forth before all the nations.

On Wednesday last, the soul of

Frank Lawrence Vernon

Priest, entered into the larger life. It seems particularly appropriate that he should be called from earthly weakness and suffering to his Eternal Home during the Octave of the Ascension, as the Ascended Lord was the center of his life and devotion. He was constantly seeking those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Of few men could it be so truly said that he set his affection on things above and not on things of the earth. And now he has begun to enter into the joy of his Lord.

As we commend his soul into the arms of the Everlasting Mercy, let us give thanks to God for the manifold gifts bestowed upon him and for the life and example of a great Priest, and above all, for his ministry at St. Mark's Church.

Lord, all pitying, Jesus blest,
Grant him thine Eternal Rest.

Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,

Will someone forward a copy of Good Housekeeping regularly to the wife of a priest in the South? The former donor has discontinued and as the magazine takes no new subscriptions the Church Periodical Club must find someone willing to share a copy. Please notify by mail—Mrs. T. F. Jenkins, 1830 Rittenhouse Square.

If you have not sent in your contribution to the Summer Appeal we would appreciate receiving it at your early convenience in order that we can proceed with our plans.

Last Sunday I requested you to think of and pray for the "Shut-ins." These good people—the aged, the victims of sickness, and the disabled veterans of various wars—need our constant attention. They do not want sympathy; they want friendship. Is it asking too much to urge you to visit two "Shut-ins"—a civilian and a war veteran—before the end of June?

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
Who His own Self bare our sins in His own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.
Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus.
Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him Who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light.
I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Hymn 1 Come, thou long-expected Jesus - Gotha, 1715

Introit—Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul: O my God, in thee have I trusted; let me not be confounded. Neither let mine enemies triumph over me: for all they that look for thee shall not be ashamed.
Ps. Shew me thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - Mass XVII, Mode VI

The Collect and Epistle Book of Common Prayer, page 90

Gradual—For all they that look for thee shall not be ashamed; O Lord: Make known to me thy ways, O Lord, and teach me thy paths.

Alleluia—Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation. Alleluia.

Sequence—Saviour Eternal! Health and Life of the world unfailing. Light Everlasting! and in verity our redemption.
Grieving that the ages of men must perish through the tempter's subtlety;
Still in heaven abiding thou camest earthward of thine own great clemency:
Then freely and graciously deigning to assume humanity, to lost ones and perishing gavest thou thy free deliverance, filling all the world with joy.
O Christ, our souls and bodies cleanse by thy perfect sacrifice; that we, as temples pure and bright, fit for thine abode may be.
By thy former Advent justify, by thy second grant us liberty: That, when in the might of glory thou descendest, Judge of all, we, in raiment undefiled, bright may shine and ever follow, Lord, thy footsteps blest, where'er they lead us.

Alleluia—The Saints shall judge the nations, and have dominion over the people: and their Lord shall reign for ever. Alleluia.

Sequence

Spouse of Christ, in arms contending
O'er each clime beneath the sun,
Blend with prayers for help ascending
Notes of praise for triumps won.

As the Church today rejoices
All her Saints to join on high,
So from earth let all our voices
Rise in solemn harmony.

In your heavenly habitations,
In your blessed home on high,
Hear, ye Saints, our aspirations,
As to God we lift our cry.

Ever praising, ever praying,
Help ye thus your brethren here,
That the will of God obeying
We in peace may persevere.

For thy dear Saints, O Lord,
Who strove in thee to live,
Who followed thee, obeyed, adored,
Our grateful hymn receive.

They all in life and death,
With thee their Lord in view,
Learned from thy Holy Spirit's breath
To suffer and to do.

Thine earthly members fit
To join thy saints above,
In one communion ever knit,
One fellowship of love.

Jesus, thy Name we bless,
And humbly pray that we
May follow them in holiness
Who lived and died for thee. Amen.

Psalm 84 - - - - III-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - Henry Coleman in F

Hymn 590 - - - Dykes, 1875

Ten thousand times ten thousand
In sparkling raiment bright,
The armies of the ransomed saints
Throng up the steeps of light.
'Tis finished, all is finished,
Their fight with death and sin:
Fling open wide the golden gates,
And let the victors in.

What rush of alleluias
Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
O day for which creation
And all its tribes were made!
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousand-fold repaid!

O then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore!
What knitting severed friendships up
Where partings are no more!
Then eyes with joy shall sparkle
That brimmed with tears of late;
Orphans no longer fatherless
Nor widows desolate.

Bring near thy great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain;
Fill up the roll of thine elect,
Then take thy power and reign!
Appear, Desire of Nations!
Thine exiles long for home;
Show in the heavens thy promised sign!
Thou Prince and Saviour come! Amen.

Address - The Rev. William H. Dunphy, Ph. D.

Anthem - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified,

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Introit—The sorrows of death came about me; the pains of hell gat hold upon me; and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.
Ps. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my defence and my Saviour. Glory be.

For the poor shall not alway be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever: Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

Tract—Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. O let thine ears consider well: the prayers of thy servant. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it. For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared, O Lord.

Anthem - - - - John Goss

The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God.

Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart. Be strong, fear not: Behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; He will come and save you.

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped, then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing: For in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called the way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein. No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there.

And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: They shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow, and sighing shall flee away.

The Bishop has launched a Crusade to give spiritual guidance to the whole community. This church supports the Crusade for spiritual enlistment. Our slogan is "Every Member a Participating Member." We must seek this Lent to renew and deepen our loyalty to Christ and His Church, to re-enlist absent members of the parish and to seek out those who are inactive in worship and in service. Let us all cooperate in prayer and action.

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday are Ember Days.

Saturday will be the Feast of St. Mathias. There will be a second Mass at 9.30.

The Confirmation Instruction Class is held on Sunday afternoons at 2.45, in the parish parlor. Persons already confirmed or interested in learning more about the Church's faith are welcome.

The subject of the Friday Evening Sermons in Lent is "The Christian Doctrine of God."

DIOCESAN WAR COMMISSION—Literature concerning this worthy cause has been placed in the pews and in the back of the church. The need of this appeal needs no further comment. If at all possible we would appreciate receiving your offering today.

Hymn 55 Forty days and forty nights Martin Herbst, 1676

Introit—He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him: I will deliver him and bring him to honour: with length of days will I satisfy him.
Ps. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - Mass XVII. Mode VI

The Collect and Epistle - Book of Common Prayer, page 125

Gradual—God shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.
V. They shall bear thee in their hands: lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Tract—Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say unto the Lord, thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in Him will I trust. For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night. Nor for the arrow that flieth by day, for the pestilence that walketh in darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noonday. A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee. For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him. I will set him up, because he hath known my Name. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

The Holy Gospel - Book of Common Prayer, page 126

Credo (Hymnal, 720) - Plainchant, Ninth Century

Sermon - - The Rev. William H. Dunphy, Ph. D.

Kyrie Eleison - - Basil Harwood in E flat

The Collect and Epistle Book of Common Prayer, page 134

Gradual—Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevetheless, my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well-nigh slipt: and why? I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

Tract—My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health and from the words of my complaint. O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou Worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm and no man: the very scorn of men and the outcast of his people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.
O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come. and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made,

The Holy Gospel - Book of Common Prayer, page 134

Credo (Hymnal, 720) - Plainchant, Ninth Century

Sermon - - The Rev. William H. Dunphy, Ph. D.

Offertory—Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me. They gave me gall to eat: and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Hymn 75 O Sacred Head, sore wounded Hassler, 1601

Notices

St. Mark's Day, Wednesday, April 25th. There will be a Sung Mass at 9.30 A. M.

Let us keep St. Mark's Day, our Patronal Festival as a day of special prayer, not only for our beloved Church here, but also for the United Nations Conference which meets at San Francisco on April 25th. I hope that every member of the parish will attend one of the Masses on that day and that there will be a good attendance at Intercessions and Evening Prayer. When our men in the armed forces are risking or giving their lives to achieve a lasting peace, surely it is not too much to expect that we should pray for the same purpose and assist at the Holy Sacrifice with that intention.

Thursday, April 26th, The Annual Service of the Girls' Friendly Society in the Diocese will be held in St. Mark's Church at 8 P. M. The Rt. Rev. William P. Roberts, Bishop of Shanghai, will preach the Sermon. Music by the full Choir of St. Mark's.

For many years the members of the Woman's Auxiliary have been asked to make a Corporate Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass on the Sunday before the Auxiliary Meeting. Living, as many do, at a distance, this is no longer practical. Therefore next Sunday, April 29th, will you please make your Communions at any Mass with intention for the Mission of the Church as expressed through the work of the Woman's Auxiliary.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held on Thursday, May 3d, at 2 P. M. The Speaker will be the Rev. S. C. Hughson, O.H.C., who will speak on "The Missionary Vocation of the Church." We hope that many will come to welcome him.

Spring Meeting of Diocesan Altar Guild—Wednesday, April 25th, 8 P. M., at St. Peter's Church, 3rd and Pine Streets. Rev. F. W. Blatz will make the Address. After the Meeting there will be a social hour with refreshments in the parish house. Acceptances should be sent to Miss H. E. Sprecher, 202 S. 19th St. by April 23rd.

Eastertide Quiet Day, Wednesday, April 25th, at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue. Mass—8.30, closing at 3.15. Conductor—The Rev. Edmund B. Wood. Please register promptly.

Wednesday, April 25th—Last day to receive garments for United National Clothing Committee for War Relief.

Presentation of the United Thank Offering—Thursday, May 3rd, at 10 A. M., at Holy Trinity Church, 19th and Walnut Streets. Bishop Hart will be the Celebrant and the Speaker will be Dr. Lewis B. Franklin, Treasurer of the National Council. Contributions may be sent before that date to the Treasurer, Mrs. Alfred Hand, 1724 Pine Street.

Anthem - - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

Sanctus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Willan

Anthem - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

O Salutaris Hostia, 209

Our foes press on from every side,

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven, Alleluia.

PRAY FOR THE RELIGIOUS LIFE

The time between the Ascension and Whitsunday is a period of special prayer for the Religious Life. Let us pray today for all called to the Religious Life that they may respond, for all novices that they may have the gift of perseverance, and for all the Professed that they may turn from the weakness of their natural abilities to the power of the Spirit that is given them of God.

Also on each of the following days let us pray as follows:

Monday—For an increase of the 'spirit of grace and supplication' in the lives of the Professed.

Tuesday—For Religious Superiors and for all who have influence in in the government and ordering of the corporate life of their Communities.

Wednesday—For the growth and progressive sanctification of active communities of men and women ministering to Christ in His needy, sinful, or suffering members at home or abroad, and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom of God in the dark places of the earth.

Thursday—For those Communities in which the life is ordered by strict discipline, austerity, and prayer in order that their members may impart to others the light gained by their contemplation.

Friday—For those Communities which are specially consecrated to contemplation, penance, and worship.

Whitsunday—For the revival of the religious life in the Anglican Communion and for the many blessings which which we have all received through this revival,

St. Mark's Branch, Section 37, of the Needlework Guild, collected 189 garments for the National Committee for War Relief, thanks to the generosity and cooperation of the donors.

Notices

There will be a Quiet Evening for members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament on the Eve of Corpus Christi, Wednesday, May 30th, at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue, from 5 to 7 P. M. Conductor, Rev. Charles C. Liggett. Please register promptly.

On Thursday. May 31, there will be the usual Masses at 7.00, 7.45 and 9.30.

At St. Alban's Church, Olney, as for many years past, there will be a "Provincial Service" on Corpus Christi, Thursday May 31st, for all members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, at 8 P. M.: Solemn Vespers, Sermon, Procession of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction.

This evening there will be a Missionary Service at Holy Trinity Church at 8 P. M., to which all are cordially invited. The Guest Preacher will be the Rt. Rev. Bravid W. Harris, Missionary Bishop of Liberia.

For many years the members of the Woman's Auxiliary have been asked to make a Corporate Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass on the Sunday before the Auxiliary Meeting. Living, as many do, at a distance, this is no longer practical. Therefore next Sunday, June 3rd, will you please make your Communions at any Mass with intention for the Mission of the Church as expressed through the work of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Next Sunday, June 3rd, is "Shut-Ins Day", an annual international day to encourage remembrance of the sick and disabled. Last year several members of the congregation visited some of our shut-ins. God blessed these visits, both to the visitors and those who received the visit. We want to let these people know that we realize they are not useless or neglected members of the Church; that we realize what a power they are or may be through their prayers and that we are mindful of the fact that we are all bound together in the bundle of life and in the fellowship of Christ's Church. I hope that many more members of the parish this year will be led to visit the sick and shut-in.

And find thy mercy sweet.

Light thou our weary way,
Lead thou our wandering feet:
That while we stay on earth we may
Still find thy mercy sweet.

Thus shall the heavenly host
Hear all our songs repeat,
To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
My joy, thy mercy sweet. Amen

Office Hours

The Rector will be in his office from 10 to 11 A. M. most mornings At other times by appointment.

Sister Darthea's Office Hours are daily, except Tuesdays, from 11 to 12.00 P. M.

Notices

The noon-day Intercessions have been discontinued because of the increasingly poor attendance over the last few years. It is hoped that members of the congregation will make an increasing practice of dropping in at that time for private intercessions. The Shrine might well be used for that purpose. Also it is hoped that more will make an effort to be present at Evening Prayer followed by Intercessions. Now more than ever before there is need for all Christians to "pray without ceasing."

Church School sessions will be resumed next Sunday afternoon at 2.30. If you know of any likely children, boys or girls, please give their names to the Clergy or to the Sister. This is an opportunity and a challenge to provide for the future membership of our parish.

Those interested in attending the Confirmation Class are asked to hand in their names to to Father Dunphy or Father Fifer.

Woman's Auxiliary, Thursday, October 4th, at 2 P. M. The Speakers will be the Rector and Mrs. George Trowbridge, Chairman of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Woman's Auxiliary. Mrs. Trowbridge will speak on "Christian Social Relations." It is hoped that many will come to this meeting.

The first meeting of the Evening Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held Thursday, October 4th, at 8 P. M. At that time we will make a pilgrimage all around our Church. Opportunity to question will be provided afterward. Father Dunphy will be the Conductor.

Choir boys are needed immediately—ages 8 to 10. Boys receive excellent musical education and are paid for their services. Transportation to and from Church is also paid. Interviews in the Choir Room every Friday, 4 to 6 P. M. and Saturday 10 to 1 P. M., or by special appointment with the Choir Master.

Catholic Laymen's Union—Tuesday, October 2nd, at St. Timothy's Church, Roxboro, at 7.45 P. M. The Speaker will be the Rev. William H. Dunphy, Ph. D., on "Episcopal Chaplains and Service Men."

Notices

Thursday is St. Luke's Day. There will be the usual Masses at 7, 7.45 and 9.30.

Communicants of the Episcopal Church, who have come expecting and prepared to receive Holy Communion, may do so after the eleven o'clock Eucharist by going to St. John's Altar (on the extreme left) and waiting for one of the priests. This arrangement is intended chiefly, though not exclusively, for the benefit of visiting men and women in the armed forces of our country.

Church School Sessions at 2.30:—If you know of any likely children, boys or girls, please give their names to the Clergy or to the Sister. This is an opportunity and a challenge to provide for the future membership of our parish.

ST. MARK'S PENCE—Early in May we as a Parish started to build St. Mark's spire by pennies. The height of the spire being what it is, it requires 1,600 pennies to do this. The Woman's Auxiliary (afternoon and evening branches) are happy to state that as of October 4th we have completed this task once, and are a few dollars on our way to building it again. What does this mean? Simply that the Missionary Committees of the Diocese will each receive $32.00 apiece every time the spire is built. It is heartening that this simple and painless way of giving has met with such a response. The Woman's Auxiliary takes this way of saying "thank you" to all who contributed and asks your continued interest. We all know that the world of today needs the help of Christian missions as never before.

The Presentation of the United Thank Offering will be held in St. Mark's Church on Thursday, November 1st, at 8 P. M.

On Saturday-in-Octave of All Saints, November 3rd, there will be a Quiet Evening for Women at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue, from 4.30 to 9 P. M. Conductor, the Rev. William T. Metz. Please register promptly.

The Evening Auxiliary is sponsoring the sale of large Church Kalendars carrying a picture of St. Mark's Church and also the hour of Services. The cost is 35 cents each. The Auxiliary also has large pictures of the interior of the Church and of the doorway, which sell at 75 cents each. Kalendars and pictures can be procured from any member of the Evening Auxiliary or at the Church Office.

The pair of brown kid gloves left in the Church several weeks ago can be had by speaking to the sexton.

Members of St. Mark's Parish are reminded of the fact that the responsibility for gathering a Confirmation Class is primarily the responsibility of the laity, as the Bishop recently reminded us. Only if every member of the Parish accepts this responsibility can the parish survive and grow. If Christ and His Church mean anything to us, we must bear witness to others and "compel them to come in". The Confirmation Class meets on Thursday evening, at 8 P. M., in the Parish Parlor.

Spouse of Christ, in arms contending
O'er each clime beneath the sun,
Blend with prayers for help ascending
Notes of praise for triumphs won.

As the Church today rejoices
All her Saints to join on high,
So from earth let all our voices
Rise in solemn harmony.

In your heavenly habitations,
In your blessed home on high,

Help ye thus your brethren here,
That the will of God obeying
We in peace may persevere.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

Come, dearest Lord, Come gentle Lord. Come with Thy tender healing, Shine through the night's dark ceiling, Come for I wait for Thee, Come soon and calm Thou me, Make thou mine eyelids close. Come dearest Lord.

Come dearest Lord, Come gentle Lord. Now that the day has ended. Darkness and light are blended. Gladly I wait for Thee. Come soon and calm Thou me. Make Thou mine eyelids close. Come dearest Lord.

NATION-WIDE ADVENT CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR MEN TODAY.

The Confirmation Instruction Class will be held on Thursday evening, December 6th, at 8 P. M., in the parish parlor.

It is the tradition at St. Mark's to give generously to Thanksgiving Day Offering for the Episcopal Hospital. This year unfortunately the Offering was only about two-thirds of the usual amount. At this time we cannot afford to slacken our efforts or curtail our giving to anything as vital as this. "I was sick and in prison and ye visited me, or ye visited me not." Our Lord will some day say one or the other to us. Those who have not yet given still have opportunity to do so and those who would like to add to their gift may still do so.

The Woman's Auxiliary pledges for 1946 will be offered at the High Mass today. These pledges cover all missionary giving of the Woman's Auxiliary, from funds formerly collected through dues, monthly offerings and special gifts for St. Mark's Episcopal Hospital Auxiliary, Indian Hope Scholarship, Holy Cross Liberian Mission and Negro work.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held on Thursday, December 6th, at 2 P. M. The Speaker will be Mrs. Robert P. Frazier, Chairman of the Department of Christian Education. The subject will be "Christian Education: A survey of the program for the coming year and our part in it; the imperative need for the understanding of the Church's problem of today."

The Evening Auxiliary of St. Mark's will hold its meeting on Thursday, December 6th, at 8 P. M. Father Dunphy will be the Speaker on "Problems Facing General Convention."

In December the Evening Auxiliary will again send a box to St. Mary's on the Mountain, Sewanee, Tenn., and will greatly appreciate gifts for men, women, children and babies, as well as good used clothing. Articles can be left at the parish house at any time.

The Church Periodical Club needs donors or subscription to three scholastic magazines (costs ranging from $1.50 to 4.00) for a Junior College for Negroes in San Antonio, Texas; also a subscription or a forwarded copy of The Living Church ($5.00) for the wife of a missionary in Bryan, Tex. Will anyone willing to assume one of these obligations or to subscribe toward these or the general work of St. Mark's Branch of the Church Periodical Club communicate with the Secretary: Miss M. D. Cherry, 2031 Locust Street, or with Mrs. McFaul in the Parish Office.

Religious tracts given away and left in public places are good missionary material. There are a few inexpensive ones on sale in the vestibule that are especially useful for this purpose.

We are happy to state that contributions of clothing, food and money to buy food and medical supplies, etc., for the sufferers in the war ravaged areas are coming in quite generously. We have $351.50 contributed thus far. The need is desperate and it is hoped that many others will make their contributions soon. It is better to send in money than to buy food or medical supplies, unless one can buy, as we plan to do, at wholesale rates.

ALL OFFERINGS TODAY ARE APPLIED TO MISSIONS.

Friday is the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. There will be a third Mass at 9.30.

The Confirmation Instruction Class will be held on Thursday evening at 8 P. M. in the parish parlor.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY—At this time, by widespread agreement among Christians of various allegiances, special prayer is being offered for the reunion of Christendom. It is hoped that many of our congregation will try to be present at the Holy Eucharist every day offering the Holy Sacrifice with this Special Intention. The following subjects are suggested:

Sunday, January 20th The reunion of the sundered portions of Christ's Holy Catholic Church—Anglican, Roman and Orthodox Eastern—and a return of all our separated brethren to Catholic Unity.

Monday, January 21st—The tightening of the bonds of unity among Anglicans themselves and a fuller appropriation by all Episcopalians of the Catholic heritage of the Church in faith, order, morals, discipline and devotion.

Tuesday, January 22nd—The recovery by European Protestant Communions of the Episcopate and the Priesthood, and other elements of Catholic Faith and Order which they now lack.

Wednesday, January 23rd—The return of all English speaking Protestants to the Mother Church, and the return of all separated Eastern Christians to the Orthodox Church.

Thursday, January 24th—The reunion of the Orthodox and Anglican Churches in the near future, and that the Russian Church may take its full part in the Ecumenical Movement.

Friday, January 25th Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul—The conversion of the Jews and the missionary conquest of the world for Christ.

Saturday, January 26th—That the work of relief and Inter Church aid through the World Council of Churches may strengthen Christian Fellowship.

Sunday, January 27th—That God will bless and guide the Ecumenical Movement; that God will remove from our hearts all prejudice and contempt for one another and guide us all into that Catholic Unity which is our Lord's Will.

The response to our appeal for the Presiding Bishop's Reconstruction and Advance Fund is decidedly encouraging. Against our apportionment of $10,000.00 a total of $6,364.16 has been received, leaving a balance still outstanding of $3,635.84. That means that we have raised nearly two-thirds of the amount and by careful planning and generous giving should be able to exceed our quota.

Hymns in Procession	62 64	All Glory, Laud and Honour Ride on, ride on in majesty	Teschner Hamburg
Kyrie Eleison		Prayer Book, page 70	Willoughby in G
The Collect and Epistle		Prayer Book, page 134

Gradual

Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well nigh slipt: and why? I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

Tract

My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health and from the words of my complaint. O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou Worship of Israel. Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded. But as for me, I am a worm and no man: the very scorn of men and the outcast of his people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, if he will have him. They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

Offertory

Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me. They gave me gall to eat: and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will be joyful and glad in it. V. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth forever.

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

Sequence (Hymn 97)

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer your thankful praises. A Lamb the sheep redeemeth; Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous: the Prince of Life who died reigns immortal. Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring. 'The tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesus' resurrection; bright Angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting. Yea, Christ my hope is arisen: to Galilee he goes before you.' Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining: have mercy, Victor King, ever reigning. Amen, Alleluia.

Sunday, June 2nd, is "Shut-Ins Day," an annual international day to encourage remembrance of the sick and disabled. Last year several members of the congregation visited some of our shut-ins. God blessed these visits, both to the visitors and those who received the visit. We want to let these people know that we realize they are not useless or neglected members of the Church; that we realize what a power they are or may be through their prayers and that we are mindful of the fact that we are all bound together in the bundle of life and in the fellowship of Christ's Church. I hope that many more members of the parish this year will be led to visit the sick and shut-in.

Notices

Reconstruction and Advance Fund—The Rector wishes to thank all who responded so whole-heartedly and generously to his appeal with regard to the Reconstruction and Advance Fund. Two weeks ago we were still $2,500 short of our $10,000 quota. Now over $2,300 of this amount has been raised and we lack only $190.00 to reach our goal. It is to be hoped that we will secure this within the next few days. There is still an opportunity, for those who have not thus far responded, to make their offering. "Freely have ye received, freely give."

Monday is St. Barnabas' Day. There will be a third Mass at 9.30.

The regular monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will occur Tuesday, June 18th, at 8 P. M., in the Parish House, when the special order of business will be the induction of new members.

On Thursday, Corpus Christi, there will be a Special Service at St. Alban's Church, Olney, for all members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, at 8 P. M.: Solemn Vespers, Sermon, Procession of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction.

Our St. Mark's Pence plan—started just one year ago—for building St. Mark's Spire by a pile of 16,000 pennies ($160.00) has already brought in enough to build two spires. We want this to become a permanent missionary effort in which everyone may share. Envelopes for this purpose are always to be found at the back of the Church. Please continue to fill them and help build many more St. Mark's spires.

DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA—Material Aid Program Books—with coupons at 10 cents each or $5.00 per book are on sale at the offioe. This money is for the Heifer and Food Project. Heifers are purchased through the Heifer Project Committee at New Windsor, Md., and shipped to European countries to reclaim some of the damage done by the war.

If you have not sent in your contribution to the Summer Appeal we would appreciate receiving it at your earliest convenience in order that we can proceed with our plans.

NOTICE TO MEN AND BOYS OF THE PARISH

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is holding its National Convention in this city from Friday evening, September 6th, to Sunday, September 8th. They have secured Speakers of exceptional ability who will bring a very worthwhile message, and the whole program promises to be stimulating and significant. The Meetings will mostly be held in the Benjamin Franklin Hotel.

On Sunday afternoon, September 8th, the Archbishop of Canterbury, whom the Brotherhood has brought to this country, will speak to men and boys in Convention Hall.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE A MEMBER OF THE BROTHERHOOD TO ATTEND THESE MEETINGS. The whole program is arranged, not to boost the Brotherhood, but what the Brotherhood stands for—to bring men and boys closer to our Lord through His Church. I hope that every man and boy in the parish will plan to attend these Meetings. The registration fee is small, barely covering the actual expenses involved. If anyone finds even this small expense too much, the parish will be glad to take care of the matter in any particular case.

GENERAL CONVENTION, SEPTEMBER 10 to 20.

DIOCESE OF PENNSYLVANIA—Material Aid Program Books—with coupons at 10 cents each or $5.00 per book are on sale at the office. This money is for the Heifer and Food Project. Heifers are purchased through the Heifer Project Committee at New Windsor, Md., and shipped to European countries to reclaim some of the damage done by the war.

The Choir Boys will be going on their day's outing to Atlantic City on Monday, July 1st.

New boys are always needed for the Choir, and appointments for auditions may be made with the Choirmaster.

BAPTISM—Geoffrey Rhawn Lorne Sisson—Born 2/14/'46, Baptised 12/1/'46

"As many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ."

Word is going around that the people in the war-ravaged countries of the world are now getting enough to eat and have enough clothes to wear. This is far from the truth. The facts, as revealed by Mr. Hodges, a director of our Church World Service Center at New Windsor, Md., distribution center, tell us that there are thousands dying from lack of food, clothing and medicine. Under present conditions, "Only the strongest will survive; the sick and the old will certainly die this winter."

A WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY—January 18 to January 25. Practically the whole Christian world is uniting at this time in praying for the reunion of divided Christendom. In our private intercessions and in our Communions we should pray earnestly for the accomplishment of our Lord's prayer that His Church may be one. The following intentions are suggested by the American Church Union.

Saturday, January 18—A greater zeal for the visible unity of the Holy Catholic Church.

Sunday, January 19—The healing of the schism between the Roman obedience and the rest of Christendom.

Monday, January 20—The healing of the schism between Eastern and Western Christendom.

Tuesday, January 21—The healing of the breach between the Catholic Church and the Protestant denominations.

Wednesday, January 22—The guidance of God for all World Councils and Conferences of divided Christendom, and for all organizations working for Christian Unity.

Thursday, January 23—The blessing of God upon the Pope, the Patriarchs, the Metropolitans, Archbishops, Bishops, Priests and Deacons of Christendom.

Friday, January 24—The conversion of the Jews to Christianity.

Saturday, January 25—The conversion of the heathen to Christianity.

MISSIONARY OFFERING—Next Sunday all offerings will be applied to the Missionary Expectation of 1947.

CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTION CLASS—Wednesday, January 15th, at 8 P. M., in the Parish Parlor.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW—Sunday, January 19th: Communion at 8 A. M., followed by breakfast-meeting in the parish house.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY—The money pledges for the work of the Woman's Auxiliary for 1947 will be presented on the Altar at the High Mass Sunday, January 19th. This offering is increased by the pennies received in the "Spire Fund" envelopes which are found on the table in the back of the Church. The spire is 1000 inches high. It takes 16,000 to build it. These go for Missions. The Woman's Auxiliary wishes to thank those who gave so generously to the offering for Bishop Huang. Mrs. Hand is still receiving money for this important work in Southwest China.

CONFRATERNITY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT—The Annual Requiem at St. Luke's Chapel, New York, on Tuesday, January 14th, will be celebrated at 11.30 A. M. and not at 11.00 A. M. as announced in the Intercession Paper.

BAPTISM—Allan Hunter III, Born December 19, 1946—Baptized January 5, 1947.

"As many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ."

When the time drew near, that all things that were written concerning the Son of Man should be accomplished. Then Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and the children of the Hebrews, carrying palms and olive branches went forth to meet their Lord. They spread their garments in the way and cried saying, Hosanna to the Son of David. Blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord, Hosanna in the Highest.

NOTICE REGARDING PEWS

PEW HOLDERS must realize that from time to time mistakes are made and strangers get into their pews. Most of our pew holders exercise Christian courtesy under these conditions. Others are reminded that the privilege of renting a pew may be withdrawn. Great harm has been done in some cases by nasty and un-Christian disagreeableness to strangers, who inadvertently entered some pews. This Church does not belong to the pew holders, it belongs to Almighty God and all His children are welcome here.

FATHER FLOROVSKY, of the Russian Seminary in Paris, will be the preacher at Evensong next Sunday. Fr. Florovsky, who has come to America to attend the meeting of the World Council of Churches, is one of the greatest living theologians of the Orthodox Church. It may be necessary to hold the Service next Sunday night at 8 P. M. instead of 4 P. M. Watch notice in next Sunday's leaflet. But plan to come to hear Fr. Florovsky.

NURSERY CLASS FOR CHILDREN up to 5 years of age will be held each Sunday, starting TODAY, in the library room during the 11 o'clock Mass. Parents having young children are asked to register them with Sister Darthea.

CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTION CLASS — Wednesday, April 16th, at 8 P. M.

CONFRATERNITY OF BLESSED SACRAMENT—The C.B.S. Vespers of the Blessed Sacrament will be said at St. John's Altar immediately after Evensong on April 20th, and the third Sunday of each month, through June.

FRED SIMPSON: Mr. Fred Simpson has been with us in this parish only since his discharge from the armed forces, but he has won a place in all our hearts by his love of God's Altar and his faithfnlness in fulfilling the duties of an acolyte. We could always count on him to do his part and more than his part. It is with mixed feelings, therefore, that we see him depart to try out his vocation with the Brothers of St. Barnabas. We shall miss him very much, but we also rejoice at his entrance upon this splendid work. The love and the prayers of his many friends at St. Mark's will follow him.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR NEW CHOIR BOYS

In April, 1948, St. Mark's Church will celebrate its 100th Anniversary. The Church has maintained a boy choir since the year 1870 and plans are now being formed for an extensive Musical Festival at the Church in the spring of next year.

New Boys—ages 9 to 10—are needed for the Choir and classes will be held every Wednesday and Friday at 10.00 A. M. in the Choir Room, starting Wednesday, June 25th, and continuing until July 30th.

Boys receive excellent musical education and are paid their transportation to and from the Church.

In addition to transportation each boy will also receive remuneration for his attendance at the Summer School if he completes the whole course and qualifies to enter the Choir of the Church in September, when he will receive a regular monthly salary.

Boys who are not able to attend the Summer School may report at the Choir Room of the Church any Wednesday or Thursday at 4.15 P. M., when they will be given an audition, and if satisfactory, will be able to continue attending the regular Choir rehearsals until the end of June.

It is not necessary that boys be Episcopalians. The Classes are open to boys of all denominations.

Failing that he will stay on there and fit into the family until something better turns up. Contributions should be sent to the Christian Settlement House, Inc., 539 N. 12th St., Phila. 23.

One Hundredth Anniversary Fund

At the Parish Meeting held Easter Monday, 1947, your Accounting Warden suggested that a "Contingent Fund" be raised before the end of 1948, endeavoring to obtain a minimum of $100.00 from every member of the Parish, and a suitable plaque bearing the names of the donors be installed in the Vestibule.

This "Contingent Fund" is to be set aside and the interest from it used for repairs to the Church property. Under extraordinary circumstances, the Principal may be used, in which case fifty percent of the income each year must be returned until such time as the loan is entirely repaid.

It was further suggested, there then being twenty months until the end of 1948, that the Parish Office be authorized to receive monthly or partial payments towards this $100.00 subscription from the parishioners desiring to reach their goal by this means.

Checks made out to "St. Mark's Church Centennial Fund" will be placed in this special account, and the parishioner advised periodically of the status of his subscription.

Notices

We are mailing this last Music Sheet of the present Season to every one on our mailing list in order that as large a group as possible may be informed of the Hundredth Anniversary Fund.

CHURCHYARD—Our project of beautifying the Churchyard has begun. Plantings of the first section have been made during this past week. Your inspection and enjoyment are invited. Estimates for the entire Churchyard have been made in sections, to enable groups or individuals to share in a particular part of the project. We feel sure that each member of St. Mark's will want to share in this preparation to make St. Mark's Churchyard a spot of beauty for its Hundredth Anniversary next year. Two sections have already been taken care of by the gifts of the following:

Joseph Kennard and Ann Reed Skilling
George Wharton and Charlotte R. Pepper
William H. and Helen B. Dunphy

See sketch for planting on bulletin board in the vestibule. These sections may be divided into smaller parts.

HOLY BAPTISM is scheduled to follow High Mass today. Members of the congregation are urged to stay for the incorporation into Christ and His Church of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Badagliacco.

CHURCH GARDEN—We have enjoyed the Church Garden this summer. The new plantings have done remarkably well, and will be a joy to us all in the spring when the rhododendron, laurel and azalea bloom. We are deeply appreciative to those who have contributed and made possible plantings. In addition to those who have previously contributed, and were mentioned in the June list, the following have more recently contributed:

Mr. Bayard Skilling	Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shrenk
Mrs. Theodore F. Jenkins	Miss Nancy McKean
Mrs. Levis L. Mann	Mr. Claude Gilkyson

Additional plantings are to be made in the churchyard during the coming week. They will include: rhododendron, laurel, yew and hawthorne. These will cover the corner of the churchyard at the entrance to the parish house. The cost will be about $175.00, including the cost of planting. Contributions to this fund are earnestly requested. Mark contributions as payable to the Planting Fund. We want to make St. Mark's as beautiful as possible for the One Hundredth Anniversary next year.

ST. MARK'S PROPORTIONATE SHARE — PRESIDING BISHOP'S FUND—Inasmuch as the $100,000 quota for the Diocese of Pennsylvania was oversubscribed as of October 1, 1947, all monies now received for the Presiding Bishop's Fund will be credited to the 1948 quota.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE FIRST SERVICE HELD IN ST. MARK'S CHURCH—Tuesday, October 21st, 1849.

And I saw another Angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. And lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the Throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms were in their hands; And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God Which sitteth upon the Throne, and unto the Lamb. Amen: Blessing and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

WEDNESDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY are Ember Days. These are days of fasting on which the Church requires such a measure of abstinence as is more especially suited to extraordinary acts and exercises of devotion. (Prayer Book, p. xxxii.) They are days of prayer, particularly for those to be ordained at this time.

In this parish we should keep them with particular care this year, since our own deacon, the Rev. Francis W. Voelcker, is to be ordained by Bishop Hart to the priesthood on Saturday, December 20, at 10 A. M., the first Ordination in St. Mark's for many years.

Also we shall remember our own candidate for Holy Orders, Peter Powell, who has made a distinguished record for himself scholastically and otherwise at Ripon College, Wisconsin. Let us also remember Miss Marian (Peggy) Burton, who is doing such a fine piece of work in the Mission field at St. Mary's School, Springfield, S. D.

CYCLE OF PRAYER of the American Church Union will be kept at St. Mark's on Monday, December 15. A new schedule is posted in the porch on which parishioners who already accepted 15 minute periods of prayer are again asked to sign their names, as well as those who have not accepted an assignment.

CLASS FOR ADULTS by Sister Darthea, starting today at 10.45 A. M., in the Library Room.

CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTION CLASS—Wednesday Evening, at 8 P. M., in the Library Room. This will be the last Class until after the New Year.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY will sponsor a preparation Christmas Service in our Lady Chapel, Thursday evening, December 18th, at 8 P. M. The Rector will conduct the Meditation.

MISSIONARY OFFERING—All Offerings next Sunday will be applied to Diocesan, Domestic and Foreign Missions. "Freely ye have received, freely give."

QUIET EVENING IN PREPARATION FOR CHRISTMAS—Saturday, December 20th, at St. Margaret's House, from 4.30 to 9 P. M. Conductor, the Rev. John A. Schultz.

THE CHRISTIAN SETTLEMENT HOUSE, 539 N. 12th St., gives immediate food, care and shelter to all applicants, without any red tape, and makes no distinction as to race, creed, or color. Like the Emergency Ward in a big hospital, they give emergency care at once, and do the "investigating" afterwards. This organization heartily deserves our support.

ANNUAL PARISH SERVICE TODAY at 4 o'clock. The Rector will preach. A full attendance, representative of our three congregations, is hoped for.

FLOWERS ON HIGH ALTAR TODAY are given by the afternoon Women's Auxiliary in memory of Mrs. Frank B. Burton.

ARMISTICE DAY—Thursday. The Holy Eucharist will be offered for those who have laid down their lives for our country, and for a just and durable peace.

ST. MARK'S ALTAR SOCIETY—Annual Meeting, Thursday, November 11th, in the parish parlor, immediately following the 9.30 Mass.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW, St. Mark's Chapter, netted $160.88 from the card party and auction held at St. James Hotel on October 29th. This encouraging result, in spite of short notice, will enable the Chapter to plan other much needed activity in the future. The Chapter thanks the members of the congregation and their friends who attended or contributed to make this venture the success it was.

ENDOWMENT FUND OF THE EPISCOPATE — When our people more completely understand that the Episcopate is the keystone of the Church, they will wish to provide it, in their own diocese, with an endowment adequate to make its activities secure against all contingencies. This can be done easily within a relatively short time if communicants will make gifts, large or small, to the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, in their WILLS.

BUY YOUR CHRISTMAS CARDS from members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. through Mr. Creamer, or any of the ushers. Cost—25c per photographic reproduction of the Creche, with mailing envelope. Or 5x7-inch photograph at the same price without envelope. Samples posted on bulletin board.

LARGE CHURCH KALENDARS can be procured from any member of the Evening Auxiliary or at the Church Office. The cost is 40 cents each.

THE CHRISTIAN SETTLEMENT HOUSE at 539 North 12th Street, which has been doing such a splendid missionary work for the homeless and the needy families in its vicinity for over fifteen years, would be very grateful for contributions of money, food, clothing or bedding to help carry on this great work.

OFFERTORY—The presentation and offering of the bread and wine is one of the high points of the Liturgy. The congregation should remain standing as this is part of the exercise of their lay priesthood to which they were ordained in the Sacrament of Confirmation. This is no time to kneel down and say one's private prayers. It is an act of corporate worship and we should act as Catholic Christians engaged in a common act of common worship. It is the ancient Anglican custom and the age long custom of the Catholic Church, except for modern Rome, to stand at this point. We stand, of course, at the offering of money, whether at a Sunday or weekday Mass, and the oblation of the bread and wine, which is to become the Body and Blood of Christ, is far more important than the cash offering.

THE LITANY will be sung today at 10.45 A. M.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE—There has been expressed a desire for some Service on Christmas Eve. It seems undesirable in a in a down town city parish to have the midnight Mass, with the risk of many communions not reverently prepared for. We shall therefore try the experiment of having festal Evensong at 8 o'clock on Christmas Eve, with congregational carol singing and devotions. This should make an admirable prelude to the keeping of the Feast itself. Come and bring your friends.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP meets every Sunday Evening immediately after Evensong in the parish house. All young people in the age group of 14 to 25 are welcome.

Who dost disperse the shades of night.
All Radiant, Thou the Father's Son,
Dost spread the brightness of His throne.

Safe in Thy care so shall we sleep
While wakeful angels watch do keep.
O God Eternal, Three in One,
Forever may Thy praises run.

Solo Cantata — My Jesus is My Lasting Joy

Dietrich Buxtehude, 1637-1707
Organist, Marienkirche, Lubeck, Germany

Choristers Anderson and Zeigler

The troubles of this earthly life distress me but a day,
Through all this hard and troublous strife, my treasure lasts for aye.
Away, O world, with pomp and gold, and all thy vain display!
Whate'er betide, God's love will guide, and keep all harm away.

My Jesus is my lasting joy, the world but empty show,
Where sorrow grows and fears destroy; all's dreary here below.
When life is done, with God's own Son in faith I shall abide.
He reigns above, and in His love will keep me at His side.

LITANY FOR ORDINATIONS at 11 A. M. today.

WEDNESDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY are Ember Days. These are days of fasting on which the Church requires such a measure of abstinence as is more especially suited to extraordinary acts and exercises of devotion. They are Days of prayer, particularly for those to be ordained at this time.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE—There has been expressed a desire for some Service on Christmas Eve. It seems undesirable in a down town city parish to have the midnight Mass, with the risk of many communions not reverently prepared for. We shall therefore try the experiment of having festal Evensong at 8 o'clock on Christmas Eve, with congregational carol singing and devotions. This should make an admirable prelude to the keeping of the Feast itself. Come and bring your friends.

FLOWERS FOR CHRISTMAS—People wishing to send white memorial flowers for the Altar for Christmas Day will please have them at the Church by 12 o'clock noon, Friday the 24th.

MISSIONARY OFFERING—All Offerings next Sunday will be applied to Diocesan, Domestic and Foreign Missions. "Freely ye have received, freely give."

QUIET EVENING in Preparation for Christmas—Saturday, December 18th, at St. Margaret's House, from 4.30 to 9 P. M. Conductor, Rev. Gordon Lyall. Please register early.

CONFRATERNITY OF BLESSED SACRAMENT—Vespers of C. B. S. will be said next Sunday immediately after Evensong.

LARGE CHURCH KALENDARS on sale by Evening Auxiliary or at the Office. Cost 40 cents each.

RADIO TALKS by the Rector on Sundays at 6.45 P. M. over STATION WDAS (1400 on your dial)

THE SERVICES ON CHRISTMAS DAY will be as follows:

8 and 9 A. M.—Masses for Communion
10.30 A. M.—Matins
11.00 A. M.—High Mass and Sermon
4.00 P. M.—Evening Prayer (Said)

CHRISTMAS CONFESSIONS—Saturday, December 18th—12 to 1 and 4 to 5 P. M. Also Friday, December 24th—12 to 1 and 7 to 8 P. M.

Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness

Be not wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever: the holy cities are a wilderness, Sion is a wilderness. Jerusalem a desolation, our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee. Drop down, etc.

We have sinned and are as an unclean thing, and we all do fade as a leaf: and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away, thou dast hid thy face from us: and hast consumed us because of our iniquities; Drop down, etc.

Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen; that ye may know me and believe me: I, even I, am the Lord, and beside there is no Saviour: and there is none that can deliver out of my hand. Drop down, etc.

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, and my salvation shall not tarry: I have blotted out as a thick cloud thy transgressions: Fear not, for I will save thee: for I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Redeemer. Drop down, etc.

There were Shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. And the angel said unto them: Fear not, for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour which is Christ the Lord.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying: Glory to God, glory, Glory to God in the highest. And peace on earth, good will toward men. Glory to God, glory, Glory to God in the highest, Glory to God.

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty has magnified me; and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts,
He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel; as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed forever.

How bright appears the Morning Star,
With mercy beaming from afar;
The host of heav'n rejoices;
O Righteous Branch! O Jesse's Rod!
Thou Son of Man and Son of God!
We too will lift our voices:
Jesus! Jesus! Holy, holy, yet most lowly
Draw Thou near us;
Great Emmanuel, come and hear us.

Though circle'd by the hosts on high,
He deigned to cast a pitying eye
Upon his helpless creature;
The whole creation's Head and Lord,
By highest seraphim adored,
Assumed our very nature;
Jesus grant us, through Thy merit,
To inherit Thy salvation;
Hear, O hear our supplication.

Rejoice, ye heavens; thou earth reply;
With praise, ye sinners, fill the sky,
For this his Incarnation.
Incarnate God, put forth thy power,
Ride on, ride on, Great Conqueror,
Till all know thy salvation.
Amen, amen! Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise be given
Evermore, by earth and heaven. Amen.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven. Alleluia.

MISSIONARY OFFERING—All Offerings today will be applied to the Missionary Expectation of 1949.

FLOWERS on the Altar today are given by Miss Charlotte Eckfeldt in memory of her parents, William and Annie E. Eckfeldt. "May they rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon them."

SPIRE OF PENNIES—St. Mark's Spire is approximately 1,000 inches high. One inch of pennies equals 16 cents; 1,000 inches equal $160.00. By faithfully and steadily saving our pennies and placing them in the envelopes which can always be obtained at the back of the Church for this purpose, we can build our spire over and over each year, adding the proceeds to our annual missionary contribution. Filled envelopes can be placed on the offertory plates at any time.

UNITY SERVICE of Intercession and Witness, Sunday, January 23, at 4 P. M. Preacher: Rev. L. A. Haselmayer, Ph. D. Under auspices of Clerical Union and Laymen's Union for Maintenance and Defence of Catholic Principles. It is hoped that Orthodox and old Catholic representatives will attend, as well as our own clergy and laity.

A WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY—January 18 to January 25. Practically the whole Christian world is uniting at this time in praying for the reunion of divided Christendom. In our private intercessions and in our Communions we should pray earnestly for the accomplishment of our Lord's prayer that His Church may be one. The following intentions are suggested:

Tuesday, January 18—The unity, both visible and invisible, of Christ's Catholic Church.

Wednesday, January 19—The reunion of the Anglican and Eastern Orthodox Churches.

Thursday, January 20—The healing of the schism between the Roman Communion and the rest of Christendom.

Friday, January 21—The return to Catholic unity of all non-conformists and other separated Christians.

Saturday, January 22—Divine guidance for the World Council and for all conferences, movements and organizations striving for Christian Unity.

Sunday, January 23—The blessing of God upon the patriarchs and other chief prelates of the Christian world, the Archbishop of Canterbury, all bishops, priests and deacons, and the faithful laity in communion with them. A greater zeal for the visible unity of the Church.

Monday, January 24—The conversion of the Jews and Moslems to Christianity.

Tuesday, January 25—The conversion of the pagan world to Christianity.

Nunc Dimittis Page 28 Tone I

Hymn 53 Songs of thankfulness and praise Jakob Hintz, 1678

Chorale Seth Calvisius, 1556-1615

Ah Jesu Christ, with us abide,
For now, behold, 'tis eventide:
And bring, to cheer us through the night,
Thy Word, our true and only light.

In times of trial and distress,
Preserve our truth and steadfastness;
And pure unto the end, O Lord,
Vouchsafe Thy Sacraments and Word.

O Jesu Christ, the Church sustain;
Our hearts are wavering, cold and vain:
Then let Thy Word be strong and clear,
To silence doubt and banish fear.

Hymn 176 O Gladsome Light, O Grace of God the Father's face
Melody, Louis Bourgeois, 1549

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Hail, O Star that pointest
Towards the port of heaven,
Thou to whom as maiden
God for Son was given.

When the salutation
Gabriel had spoken
Peace was shed upon us,
Eva's bonds were broken.

Bound by Satan's fetters,
Health and vision needing,
God will aid and light us
At thy gentle pleading.

Jesu's tender Mother,
Make thy supplication
Unto him that chose thee
At his Incarnation;

Father, Son and Spirit,
Three in One confessing,
Give we equal glory,
Equal praise and blessing.
Amen.

That, O matchless Maiden,
Passing meek and lowly,
Thy dear Son may make us
Blameless, chaste and holy.

So, now as we journey,
Aid our weak endeavor,
Till we gaze on Jesus,
And rejoice for ever.

V.—Full of grace are thy lips,
R.—Because God hath blessed thee forever.

Thou blessed Emmanuel, Who saves my soul from all pains of wrong and gives peace and comfort. Let me remember Thee, Emmanuel, and all that Thou endured for mankind, in my journey thro' this life. Till I at last live with Thee the perfect life of Thine eternity, where men praise and worship Thee.

Christ the Lord is risen today;
Christians, haste your vows to pay;
Offer ye your praises meet
At the Paschal Victim's feet.
For the sheep the Lamb hath bled,
Sinless in the sinner's stead;
"Christ is risen," today we cry;
Now He lives, no more to die.

Christ the Victim undefiled
Man to God hath reconciled;
Whilst in strange and awful strife
Met together Death and Life;
Christians on this happy day
Haste with joy your vows to pay;
"Christ is risen," today we cry;
Now He lives, no more to die.

Christ, Who once for sinners bled,
Now the first-born from the dead,
Throned in endless might and power,
Lives and reigns for evermore.
Hail, Eternal Hope on high!
Hail, Thou King of Victory!
Hail, Thou Prince of Life adored;
Help and save us, gracious Lord.

How the lost may be restored,

Litany for Rogationtide

Lord, to our humble prayers attend,
Let thou thy peace from heaven descend,
And to our souls salvation send:
R. Have mercy, Lord, upon us.

Rule in our hearts, thou Prince of Peace,
The welfare of thy Church increase,
And bid all strife and discord cease:

To all who meet for worship here
Do thou in faithfulness draw near;
Inspire with faith and godly fear:

O let thy priests be clothed with might,
To rule within thy Church aright,
That they may serve as in thy sight:

Let clouds and sunshine bless the earth
Give flowers and fruit a timely birth,
Our harvests crown with peaceful mirth:

Let voyagers by land and sea
In danger's hour in safety be;
The suffering and the captive free:

Around us let thine arm be cast,
Till wrath and danger are o'erpast
And tribulation's bitter blast:

V. Lord, thou hast been our refuge.

Sick and faint, Thy strength afford,
Lost, until by Thee restored,
Comforter Divine.

Orphan are our souls and poor;
Give us from Thy heaventy store
Faith, love, joy for evermore,
Comforter Divine.

Like the dew Thy peace distill;
Guide, subdue our wayward will,
Things of Christ unfolding still,
Comforter Divine.

With us, for us, intercede,
And with voiceless groaning plead
Our unutterable need,
Comforter Divine.

In us, "Abba, Father," cry;
Earnest of the bliss on high,
Seal of immortality,
Comforter Divine.

Search for us the depths of God;
Upwards, by the starry road,
Bear us to Thy high abode,

Motet — Hymn to the Trinity — Peter Tschaikovsky, 1893

Blessed angel spirits offer praise undying,
Ever crying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth.

Saints and Martyrs praise thy Name, Trinity life-giving,
Earth-borne sorrow leaving before thy throne:

Father omnipotent, mighty in glory,
Christ thy Son, our Saviour, Who died that we might live,
Holy Spirit, mystic Dove; dwelling with us evermore,
We praise thee, blessed Trinity.

With the Angels' sacred hymn, all thy might proclaiming,
With the mystic cherubim, in songs of praise we join,
Hallelujah, Lord God of Sabaoth.

COMMUNIONS AT THE LATE MASS—It is the desire and the intention of the Church that there should be some communions (in addition to the priest's) at every Eucharist. A careful reading of the Communion Prayers makes this obvious. At the same time the Church expects that those approaching the Altar will always do so after very careful preparation. Normally communicants should be fasting, unless dispensed by reason of illness or other grave cause. Of course, the Church's law: "And there shall none be admitted to the Holy Communion, until such time as he be confirmed, or be ready and desirous to be confirmed." is to be strictly observed.

Any who wish to make their communions at the late Mass on Sunday should hand in their names either before matins or immediately afterward at the very latest. This enables the priest to know how many communions to prepare for, and guarantees that only those who are planning and prepared to approach the Blessed Sacrament will do so.

STARTING TODAY at 4 o'clock, Evening Prayer will be said, not sung.

FRIDAY, ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST'S DAY—There will be Masses at 7, 7.45 and 9.30 A. M.

THE FLOWERS ON THE ALTAR today are given by Anthony Badagliacco in memory of Rose Badagliacco. "May she rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon her."

LINKED ALTARS—Saturday, the 25th. Pray for St. Mark's, Honolulu, and its Rector, Fr. Souder.

Sunday School

Often it is not given the co-operation necessary to do a good job. On the other hand, it is expected to accomplish impossible things. Just what can it do, and what does it need?

The Sunday School is a supplement to the home teaching of our children. Also, it gives meaning to the children's participation in public worship.

Many things begin at home. The Christian training of children is no exception. Nothing can take the parent's place in giving children three things. In the home they should learn: (1) The elementary facts of our religion, (2) A Christian point of view toward life, and (3) The habit of prayer.

The heart of Christian life is worship regularly offered in Church. This never has been, and cannot be, acquired in any Sunday School. The child who is not regularly brought to Church from rather early years by his parents is cheated of one of life's basic ingredients.

The part of the Sunday School is to supplement the home, and the Church's worship, just as the day school assists the home in other areas of life. The years in which a child should attend Sunday School are probably identical with those in which he goes to Grammar School, High School, and beyond. In other words, before he is six years old he should have formed the habit of public worship. Then, at that age he enters Sunday School for as long as his week-day education continues.

Anthem — Mendelssohn

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. O deliver me from deceitful and unjust men. Thou art the God of my strength, O why dost Thou cast me from Thee? Wherefore mourn I because the enemy sorely oppresseth me? Send out Thy light and truth, Lord, O let them lead me, and bring me unto Thy holy hill, and to Thy dwelling-place. And then will I go to the altar of God, the God of my joy. I will praise Thee upon the harp, O my God. O my soul, why art thou cast downward, and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope in the Lord, O my soul, for I will praise Him who is the health of my countenance, and my gracious Lord and God.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to His abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heav'n for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time. But as He which has called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently. Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof faileth away. But the word of Lord endureth for evermore. Amen.

From out the Saviour's side.
We faint with thirst, revive us,
Of Thine abundance give us,

'Neath forms of Bread and Wine.
Grant when the veil is riven,
We may behold in Heaven
Thy countenance divine. Amen.

Notices

TODAY is widely observed as Bible Sunday. It is well that we should remember that the Bible is the CHURCH'S BOOK, or rather the CHURCH'S LIBRARY. Three things belong together; the Holy Spirit, Who spake by the prophets, the Bible the record of God's revelation, and the Catholic Church, which is a sure and unfailing interpreter of that revelation. It is tragic when men tear apart what God has joined together. The Scriptures were written in and for the Church by the Apostles and others. They were handed down by the successors of the Apostles, the Bishops. They were separated from non-inspired writings and gathered together into the Bible by Councils representing the Catholic Church as a whole. The decision was made not by any local Church, such as the Church of Rome or Bishop, nor by groups of individuals here and there, but by the Church as a whole. The same spirit that inspired the Scriptures in the Church guides her to interpret them rightly.

But it is not enough to have the Scriptures. We must see, and hear them, read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of God's Holy Word we may embrace, and ever hold fast, the blessed hope of everlasting life, which God has given us in His Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

THE EVENING AUXILIARY is packing a box on December 7th for St. Mary's on-the-Mountain, Sewanee, Tennessee. Contributions of toys, books, games, good used clothing will be appreciated. These should be left at the parish house marked for the Evening Auxiliary.

I

Hosanna to the living Lord!
Hosanna to the Incarnate Word!
Hosanna in the highest!
To Christ Creator, Saviour King,
Let earth, let heav'n "Hosanna" sing!

"Hosanna, Lord," Thine angels cry;
"Hosanna, Lord," Thy saints reply,
Hosanna in the highest!
Above, beneath us and around,
The dead and living swell the sound.

II

O night of doubt, when wilt thou pass over?
When comes the Light of Light to me?
When shall my feeble earth-bound sight discover
The radiant dawn of ecstacy?
By God's good grace the fight is won,
And doubt's dread pow'r is all undone,
Light of my life, 'tis Thou wilt bring me
To Thine eternal company!

III

God is love; His mercy brightens
All the path in which we move.
Hope He wakes, and care He lightens,
God is wisdom, God is love!
All our hopes on God are founded,
He doth still our trust renew;
Us thro' change and chance He guideth,
Only good and only true;
God unknown—He alone—
Calls our hearts to be His own!

Notices

WEDNESDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY are Ember Days. These are days of fasting on which the Church requires such a measure of abstinence as is more especially suited to extraordinary acts and exercises of devotion. They are Days of Prayer, particularly for those to be ordained at this time. Also let us remember three young men of the parish who are preparing for Holy Orders:

Peter Powell at Ripon College.
Roy Flinchbaugh at Franklin & Marshall College.
Dick Badger at Dartmouth College.

COFFEE HOUR TODAY, immediately following High Mass, on the second floor of the parish house, sponsored by the Y. P. F. All members of the congregation, their friends and visitors are invited.

MISSIONARY OFFERING—All offerings next Sunday will be applied to Diocesan. Domestic and Foreign Missions. "Freely ye have received, freely give."

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE—Festal Evensong, which meant so much to so many last year, will be repeated this Christmas Eve at 8 o'clock. The congregational carol singing and devotions should make an admirable prelude to the keeping of the Feast itself. Come and bring your friends.

1950 SUBSCRIPTION BLANK—If not already turned in, will you please give this your early attention. It is hoped that all pledges for Missions may be greatly increased this year in accordance with the decision made by our representatives at General Convention.

FLOWERS FOR CHRISTMAS—People wishing to send white memorial flowers for the Altar for Christmas Day will please have them at the Church by 12 o'clock noon, Saturday, the 24th.

NEXT SUNDAY at 11 A. M. we will be privileged to hear the Rev. E. Sambayya. Fr. Sambayya has been one of the leaders of the Anglicans in South India who refused to come into the new sect called the South India United Church. He will probably have something to tell us about those who put their loyalty to our Lord and the Catholic faith above patchwork schemes of union, which disregard the divinely instituted bases of unity. He is well worth hearing.

During this time we shall be praying for the reunion of the separated parts of the Catholic Church—Anglican, Roman, Orthodox and Old Catholic, and the return to Catholic Unity of separated Christians. It is hoped that all who can will be present at the Holy Eucharist each day of this week to offer the Holy Sacrifice with special intention for the cause of Christian Unity, which is so dear to our Blessed Lord.

TODAY AT 11 A. M. we will be privileged to hear the Rev. E. Sambayya. Fr. Sambayya has been one of the leaders of the Anglicans in South India who refused to come into the new sect called the South India United Church. He will probably have something to tell us about those who put their loyalty to our Lord and the Catholic faith above patchwork schemes of union, which disregard the divinely instituted bases of unity. He is well worth hearing.

FEAST OF THE CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL—Wednesday. There will be Masses at 7, 7.45 and 9.30 A. M.

CONFIRMATION CLASS—As the Bishop reminds us, it is the duty of the parish to gather a confirmation class. It is the duty of the clergy to instruct them. Thus far our parishioners have done nothing about gathering a class. It is necessary for us to act quickly if there is to be one this year.

CANDLEMAS—Thursday, February 2nd, is the Feast of the PRESENTATION OF CHRIST and the PURIFICATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY. Blessing of candles and a Candlemas Procession is scheduled for Evensong, NEXT SUNDAY, January 29th.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING on on Sunday, March 12th, 11 A. M. TO BUILD "ONE WORLD IN CHRIST" The Church is facing an educational crisis. Our leaders are convinced that an attempt to resolve it, "by producing a cheap series of educational vitamins would be to maim our children and betray the Church." Even a budget of $341,000 for the National Department of Christian Education means less than 74c per Church School child. General Convention has agreed. Will you on March 12th? The Presiding Bishop will speak and and it is hoped we may hear his broadcast in St. Mark's Church.

BISHOP HUANG, who preached here a year ago, is reported held by Chinese bandits. Let us pray for his safety and speedy release.

O Food of men wayfaring,
The Bread of Angels sharing,
O Manna from on high!
We hunger, Lord, supply us
Nor Thy delights deny us,

O stream of love past telling,
O purest Fountain welling
From out the Saviour's side,
We faint with thirst, revive us,
Of Thine abundance give us,
And all we need provide.

O Jesu, by Thee bidden,
We here adore Thee hidden
'Neath forms of Bread and Wine.
Grant when the veil is riven,
We may behold in Heaven
Thy countenance divine. Amen.

Hymn for St. George's Day — Melita

Lord God of Hosts, within whose hand
Dominion rests on sea and land,
Before whose word of life or death
The strength of nations is but breath:
O King, enthroned all thrones above,
Give strength unto the land we love.

Thou, breath of life since time began,
Breathing upon the lips of man,
Hast taught each kindred race to raise
United word to sound thy pratse:
So, in this land, join we beseech,
All hearts and lips in single speech.

To George our saint thou gavest grace
Without one fear all foes to face,
And to confess by faithful death
That Word of Life which was his breath.
O help us, Helper of Saint George,
To fear no bonds that man can forge.

Arm us like him, who in thy trust
Beat down the dragon to the dust;
So that we too may tread down sin
And with thy saints a crown may win.
Help us, O God, that we may be
A land acccptable to thee.

O Food of men wayfaring,
The Bread of Angels sharing,
O Manna from on high!
We hunger, Lord, supply us
Nor Thy delights deny us,
Whose hearts to Thee draw nigh.

O stream of love past telling,
O purest Fountain welling
From out the Saviour's side,
We faint with thirst, revive us,
Of Thine abundance give us,
And all we need provide.

O Jesu, by Thee bidden,
We here adore Thee hidden

Prayer for Saint Mark's

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, to this Church, consecrated for Thine Honour and dedicated under the patronage of Saint Mark, such benediction as shall make it to be a haven of happiness to all those whom Thou dost lead to seek refuge within its walls. To the priests who serve it, vouchsafe, we beseech Thee, the Spirit to think and to do always such things as shall please Thee. Endue them with such grace as shall enable them to instruct the inquirer, to edify the faithful, to confirm the devout, to arouse the careless, to recover the fallen, to restore the penitent, to encourage the disheartened, to comfort the sad, to console the lonely, to bless the cheerful, to strengthen the strong, to protect the weak. And to the strangers within the gates, grant the power of Thy Holy Spirit, to fill the memory, to captivate the affections and to govern the will, that they, with us may come to the fulness of the knowledge of God, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord, Who liveth and reigneth, with the Father, in the unity of the same Spirit, One God, World without end. Amen.

It is urged that those away on vacation, as well as those remaining in the city, will pray every day this summer for St. Mark's Church, its priests and its people; that wherever we are we may bear a worthy witness to our Lord and to the principles for which St. Mark's Church stands.

Sunday School

How terribly it is mis-used!

Often it is not given the co-operation necessary to do a good job. On the other hand, it is expected to accomplish impossible things. Just what can it do, and what does it need?

The Sunday School is a supplement to the home teaching of our children. Also, it gives meaning to the children's participation in public worship.

Many things begin at home. The Christian training of children is no exception. Nothing can take the parent's place in giving children three things. In the home they should learn: (1) The elementary facts of our religion; (2) A Christian point of view toward life, and (3) The habit of prayer.

The heart of Christian life is worship regularly offered in Church. This never has been, and cannot be, acquired in any Sunday School. The child who is not regularly brought to Church from rather early years by his parents is cheated of one of life's basic ingredients.

The part of the Sunday School is to supplement the home, and the Church's worship, just as the day school assists the home in other areas of life. The years in which a child should attend Sunday School are probably identical with those in which he goes to Grammar School, High School, and beyond. In other words, before he is six years old he should have formed the habit of public worship. Then, at that age he enters Sunday School for as long as his week-day education continues.

A Form of Morning Prayer

(From the Private Prayers of Lancelot Andrews, Bishop of Winchester, 1619-1626)

Glory be to Thee, O Lord, glory be to Thee.

Glory be to Him that hath granted me sleep
for repose of weakness, and for relief of the toils of this travailing flesh.

1. To enter on this and every day,
a perfect holy peaceful healthful sinless day:
Grant it, O Lord.

2. An angel of peace, a faithful guide, a guardian of our souls and bodies,
tarrying round about me,
and suggesting to me alway what things are wholesome:
Grant it, O Lord.

3. The forgiveness and the remission of all our sins
and of all our offenses:
Grant it, O Lord.

4. What things are good and expedient for our souls, and peace for the world:
Grant it, O Lord.

5. To accomplish the residue of our lifetime in repentance and godly fear, in health and peace:
Grant it, O Lord.

6. Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report;
if there be any virtue and if there be any praise;
that we may think on these things,
and practice these things:
Grant it, O Lord.

7. That the end of our life may be christian,
sinless, shameless,
and (if it like Thee) painless;
and a good defence at the appalling and fearful judgement-seat
of Jesus Christ our Lord:
Grant it, O Lord.

O Food of men wayfaring.
The Bread of Angels sharing,
O Manna from on high!
We hunger, Lord, supply us
Nor Thy delights deny us,
Whose hearts to Thee draw nigh.

O stream of Love past telling,
O purest Fountain welling
From out the Saviour's side.
We faint with thirst, revive us,
Of Thine abundance give us,
And all we need provide.

O Jesu, by Thee bidden
We here adore Thee, hidden
'Neath forms of Bread and Wine.
Grant when the veil is riven,
We may behold in Heaven
Thy countenance divine. Amen.

Hosanna to the Incarnate Word!
Hosanna in the highest!
To Christ Creator, Saviour King,
Let earth, let heav'n, "Hosanna" sing!

"Hosanna, Lord!" Thine angels cry;
"Hosanna, Lord!" Thy saints reply,
Hosanna in the highest!
Above, beneath us and around,
The dead and living swell the sound.

II.

O night of doubt, when wilt thou pass over?
When comes the Light of Life to me?
When shall my feeble earth-bound sight discover
The radiant dawn of ecstacy?
By God's good grace the fight is won,
And doubt's dread pow'r is all undone,
Light of my life, 'tis Thou wilt bring me
To Thine eternal company!

III.

God is love; His mercy brightens
All the path in which we move.
Hope He wakes, and care He lightens,
God is wisdom, God is love!
All our hopes on God are founded,
He doth still our trust renew;
Us thro' change and chance He guideth,
Only good and only true;
God unknown—He alone—
Calls our hearts to be His own!

Motet - - - Trad. German Melody

O Food of men wayfaring,
The Bread of Angels sharing,
O Manna from on high!
We hunger, Lord, supply us
Nor Thy delights deny us,
Whose hearts to Thee draw nigh.

O stream of Love past telling,
O purest Fountain welling
From out the Saviour's side.
We faint with thirst, revive us
Of Thine abundance give us,
And all we need provide.

O Jesu, by Thee bidden
We here adore Thee, hidden
'Neath forms of Bread and Wine.
Grant when the veil is riven,
We may behold in Heaven
Thy countenance divine. Amen.

Motet - - - Trad. German Melody

O Food of men wayfaring,
The Bread of Angels sharing,
O Manna from on high!
We hunger, Lord, supply us
Nor Thy delights deny us,
Whose hearts to Thee draw nigh.

O stream of Love past telling,
O purest Fountain welling
From out the Saviour's side.
We faint with thirst, revive us,
Of Thine abundance give us,
And all we need provide.

O Jesu, by Thee bidden
We here adore Thee, hidden
'Neath forms of Bread and Wine.
Grant when the veil is riven,
We may behold in Heaven
Thy countenance divine. Amen.

"CHRIST IS RISEN!"

"Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death and bestowing life upon them that are in the tomb." The long night of sin and death is over and the dawn of life has appeared, for Christ our life has shadowed the tomb. He has conquered sin and hell and released the prisoners of death. His Resurrection is the pledge of our own. He is the first fruits of them that slept. "For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

We do not have to travel to the Holy Land to visit the empty tomb, or to walk in the Garden of the Resurrection. The Holy Sepulchre and the Garden of Life are in our midst—the Altar. There it is our privilege, Sunday by Sunday, or even more often, to offer to God the once finished sacrifice by which the world has been redeemed—to plead the death of our Lord and to receive His risen life. For "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

"Alleluia!"

Affectionately yours in Our Risen Lord,

William H. Dunphy.

Who deigns our bonds to sever;
His cares our drooping souls upraise,
And harm shall reach us never.
On Him we rest with faith assured,
Of all that live the mighty Lord,
For ever and for ever.

O Food of men wayfaring,
The Bread of Angels sharing,
O Manna from on high!
We hunger, Lord, supply us,
Nor Thy delights deny us,
Whose hearts to Thee draw nigh.

O stream of love past telling,
O purest Fountain welling
From out the Saviour's side,
We faint with thirst, revive us,
Of Thine abundance give us,
And all we need provide.

O Jesu, by Thee bidden,
We here adore Thee hidden
'Neath forms of Bread and Wine.
Grant when the veil is riven,

THE BISHOP OF GIBRALTAR will visit St. Luke's, Germantown, for a Service of Witness on Friday, May 25. At 8 P. M. the Bishop will preach at a Choral Evensong. (What strikes one most about the Bishop is that he regards Christianity as something aggressive in character.) It is to be hoped that every parishioner who can possibly be there will go and that those who have cars will take others.

LINKED ALTARS—Friday. Remember St. Mark's, Honolulu, and its Rector, Fr. Souder.

OUR THANKS to the young men and women of the Y. P. F. who spent an entire day cleaning the walls and woodwork in the upper parish hall. They did a splendid job and their time and effort is greatly appreciated.

THE FAMILY of the craftsman who designed the Silver Altar in the Lady Chapel are living in very distressing circumstances. One daughter is in extreme poverty; another daughter is blind. It is to be hoped that many who have derived joy and inspiration from this beautiful Altar will do something to relieve the distress of the family of the artist. Checks should be drawn to St. Mark's Church, marked for 'B. K. Relief.'

CHOIR BOYS CAMPING FUND — The funds for this purpose are coming in very nicely. If you have not yet sent in your contribution, will you please do so at your earliest convenience. It costs $25.00 per boy for the week. If you can, send us a check for $25.00, but if you are unable to do this, smaller contributions will be greatly appreciated.

OF YOUR CHARITY pray for the happy repose of the soul of Howard U. Bryan, who passed away last Sunday. Although Mr. Bryan was a recent convert to the Church, he had made many loyal and devoted friends here. His activities in the St. Andrew Brotherhood will be gratefully remembered. It was an inspiration to many of us to see him and Mrs. Bryan come all the way from Bordentown, N. J., nearly thirty miles away, in time for the 8 o'clock Mass every Sunday morning when it was physically possible. Our deep and affectionate sympathy goes out to his widow, Elizabeth Bryan. "May he rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon him."

ALSO OF YOUR CHARITY pray for the happy repose of the soul of Mme. Euphemie deCerkez and Marple W. Jones. "May they rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon them."

MISS BERTHA C. KRALL, daughter of the artist who designed the Silver Altar in the Lady Chapel, expresses her deep appreciation of the gift made possible by the contributions to the fund for which appeal was recently made in this leaflet. The family are now living in very distressed circumstances and it may be that others who have derived inspiration from this beautiful altar will wish to contribute to it.

Rector's Farewell Message

Dear Friends:

As this will be my last Sunday as Rector of St. Mark's Church, I wish to say farewell to all my good friends here, and to thank you from the heart for the loyalty and affection you have shown me through the years, and never more than in the last few months. I do not know what God may have in store for me and mine. I hope that Our Blessed Lord, Who called me to the Office and Work of a Priest in His Church, may be pleased to use me in that Office and Work. But if it be His will to cast me aside, His will be done, His Holy Name be praised.

I hope that you will from time to time remember me and my family in your prayers, and especially at the Altar of St. Mark's, which was so dear to me, and always will be.

Affectionately in Christ,

William H. Dunphy.

Offertory. O Lord Almighty, everything is in subjection unto thee: and there is no man that is able to resist thy power: for thou hast created everything; heaven and earth, and all the wonders which under heaven's vault are contained; thou art the Lord and King of all things.

Anthem - - - - Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor. He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliv'rance to the captives, and recov'ring of sight to the blind, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord. To give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

From out the Saviour's side.
We faint with thirst, revive us,
Of Thine abundance give us,
And all we need provide.

Grant when the veil is riven,
We may behold in Heaven
Thy countenance divine. Amen.

I

Hosanna to the Living Lord!
Hosanna to the Incarnate Word!
Hosanna in the highest!
To Christ Creator, Saviour King,
Let earth, let heav'n, "Hosanna" sing!

"Hosanna, Lord!" Thine angels cry:
"Hosanna, Lord!" Thy saints reply,
Hosanna in the highest!
Above, beneath us and around
The dead and and living swell the sound.

II

O night of doubt, when wilt thou pass over?
When comes the Light of Life to me?
When shall my feeble earth-bound sight discover
The radiant dawn of ecstacy?
By God's good grace the fight is won,
And doubt's dread pow'r is all undone,
Light of my life, 'tis Thou wilt bring me
To Thine eternal company!

III

God is love; His mercy brightens
All the path in which we move.
Hope He wakes, and care He lightens,
God is wisdom, God is love!
All our hopes on God are founded,
He doth still our trust renew;
Us thro' change and chance He guideth,
Only good and only true;
God unknown — He alone —
Calls our hearts to be His own!

THE FRIENDLY GREETING among people after the 11 o'clock Mass, as well as other services should be an opportunity for parish fellowship. Devotions

Motet - - Trad. German Melody

O Food of men wayfaring,
The Bread of Angels sharing,
O Manna from on high!
We hunger, Lord, supply us
Nor Thy delights deny us,
Whose hearts to Thee draw nigh.

O stream of love past telling,
O purest Fountain welling
From out the Saviour's side.
We faint with thirst, revive us,
Of Thine abundance give us,
And all we need provide.

O Jesu, by Thee bidden,
We here adore Thee hidden
'Neath forms of Bread and Wine.
Grant when the veil is riven,
We may behold in Heaven
Thy countenance divine. Amen.

Hymn 200 — Therefore we before him bending — Mode V

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.
